

BANDIT CAUGHT AFTER DRUGSTORE HOLDUP; TRIO TAKE PAY ROLL IN DAYLIGHT ROBBERY

Ex-Councilman McLendon Acquitted in Larceny Case

JUDGE POMEROY
DIRECTS VERDICT
ON DEFENSE PLEA

Former Official Accused of Taking $600 From Woodrow Ave. Firms To Push Paving Project.

RAGSDALE CALLED
AS STATE WITNESS

Ex-Mayor Tells of Conversation in Which Councilman Cooper Was Absolved by McLendon.

Ex-Councilman W. Chester McLendon, Jr., Friday night was found not guilty of a charge of simple larceny, when Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy, of Fulton superior court, directed a verdict in McLendon's favor following argument by Defense Attorney Paul S. Etheridge, who contended that evidence presented during the day by the state did not justify further consideration of the case.

Judge Pomeroy announced his decision on the motion for a directed verdict following a supper recess. The jury had been sent from the courtroom when argument on the motion began, and later, when Judge Pomeroy concluded hearing argument on the motion, he adjourned court for supper and sent the jury out to its meal. On the return from supper, Judge Pomeroy said he had arrived at a decision, and he directed the foreman of the jury to sign a verdict of acquittal.

In arguing for a directed verdict of acquittal, Attorney Etheridge, aided by his son, Paul S. Etheridge, Jr., contended that there could be no larceny where there was no loss. Etheridge said that the case was not larceny for the reason that the people knowingly gave McLendon money and got what they gave it for.

Solicitor-General John A. Boykin fighting the motion, argued that where a person knowingly gave money to another and later converted it to his own use, thereby obtaining the money fraudulently, the larceny was simple larceny. Boykin brought in the buncos practices and the Fall and Doheny Teapot Dome cases.

The defense did not offer any defense when the case was called, but went immediately into a fight to prove McLendon innocent of simple larceny by the evidence.

The trial began Friday morning and the day was spent in stating a jury and presenting the evidence. Several lengthy and heated clashes were caused by objection to certain portions of evidence the state sought to inject.

Ex-Mayor I. N. Ragsdale was among the witnesses called Friday by the state. He testified in connection with a conversation with McLendon and Councilman Garland Cooper, in which McLendon absolved Cooper of any connection with the $600 McLendon is said to have received prior to taking office as a councilman.

The change and McLendon was that he took the $600 from E. D. Ellis who collected it from four Woodrow avenue firms, on the representation that it was needed to put through council the paving of Woodrow. McLendon had been elected to council at the time, it was said, and had taken his seat, at the time, it was said.

Ellis, who formerly was employed by Crawford and Slaton, testified that McLendon told him it would take $1,000 to get the street paved, and Ellis told him that was too high. Ellis said that McLendon came back the next day and said that he would have to divide the $600 with him, but he would get the street paved for $600. The street was paved soon after the Ellis said.

On cross-examination, the defense brought out that Ellis, who recently was indicted on a charge of embezzlement from Crawford and Slaton, went on McLendon's bond, it was said.

The $600 was raised, it was said, as follows: $250 from Crawford & Slaton.

Continued in Page 6, Column 8.

Former Councilman Is Freed After All-Day Trial

Intent on testimony being given in his trial a short while before he was freed on a charge of simple larceny, ex-Councilman W. C. McLendon, Jr., and relatives are shown above. At the left, wearing a white hat, is Mrs. McLendon. Next is McLendon's brother, Charles S. McLendon. Paul S. Etheridge, defense attorney, is at the extreme right, and McLendon is leaning forward just to the left of Etheridge. Staff photo by George Cornett.

DENISON IS FREED
ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Washington Jurors Acquit Ex-Congressman in One Hour.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(P)—Edward E. Denison, a member of the house from Illinois for 16 years before he was defeated for re-election last November, today was acquitted of liquor charges by a jury of eight men and four women in District of Columbia supreme court.

The jury, given the case on the third day of the trial, deliberated one hour and took three ballots before reaching its verdict.

The trial grew out of the finding of 24 bottles of liquor in an army locker trunk in Denison's rooms at the house office building more than two years ago after he had returned from a trip to Panama with his nephew, Charles E. Lane, Jr., of St. Louis.

Called "Fairy Story."

Denison contended the wrong baggage had been delivered and that the army locker trunk he purchased at Balboa contained dishes for some friends and relatives in this city and their tour of South America.

The reception room, paneled in maple-green and fitted with oak furniture of the Tudor period, also was installed in the liner for the royal travelers.

STATE WILL PAY
FUND TO STEINER

$100,000 To Be Available
Soon, Governor Hardman Tells City Officials.

Enlargement of cancer facilities of the Albert Steiner clinic of Atlanta, the only institution devoted to cancer in the state, so that its research, knowledge and professional services may become available to every citizen of Georgia, was a step forward Friday, following announcement of Governor L. G. Hardman that the $100,000 fund appropriated by the state for that purpose will become available within a short time.

Governor Hardman's decision followed a conference between the chief executive, borough government heads and officials of the state board of health.

When the fund becomes available, it is the intention of trustees to enlarge hospitalization facilities so that a total of 100 beds will be put in operation through erection of another building.

Denison, who was present in court over the trial, expressed elation when the charges had been dropped by the probation unit. He shook hands with his three attorneys and each of the jurors and then told newspapermen he was starting on a

Continued in Page 6, Column 4.

Continued in Page 6, Column 6.

Great Health Giving Qualities
In Cornpone, Noted Doctor Says

CHICAGO, March 13.—(P)—The health-building aspects of the cornpone and polkies questions have convinced Dr. Lloyd Arnold that the debating governors of several southern states are doing very well as far as they go—but they are not talking about the same cornpone.

There are two types of ponies, said Dr. Arnold, who is professor of bacteriology and preventive medicine at the University of Illinois College of Medicine.

One type, he declared, defines crumble. Prepared with coarsely ground whole meal and water, this type would require more than the average human strength to crumble it into polkies.

The other type, to which eggs and chocolate may be added, would crumble before it reaches the table.

Arnold became almost poetic in his praise of the health-giving qualities of these southern combinations.

"A more nourishing health-giving disease-preventing food can hardly be found," he declared.

"Polkies is a concentrate of vitamins, salts and other essential foods," he said. "Iron, calcium, magnesium and other salts, extracted by boiling the leafy parts of turnips, wild deck and thistle plants, builds good red blood cells. It's good for ana-emics."

The section has its usual news interest, with pictures of all kinds of news developments all over the world.

One of the Leaping Horde

Lord Greystoke, in his tree house in the jungle, was awakened by the blood-chilling cries of the apes in their mad, weird dance of the dum dum . . . with the speed of Usha, the Wind, he swing through the trees to join his savage companions.

Follow the new adventures of Tarzan of the Apes. The most colorful of modern romances now becomes the most colorful of color pages.

Beginning in Sunday's Constitution

Real cornpones of both types, he

Time Limit Extended
For Local Taxpayers

Taxpayers Friday were granted 10 days for making their returns. Although the hours were scheduled to close March 15, the time was extended until March 25 by order of tax assessors. Scores have crowded the corridors of the city hall for the past few days attempting to make their returns. The extension will be granted without penalty, it was said.

WORK COMPLETED
ON SIX MEASURES
BY STATE HOUSES

Adjournment Feared, Assembly Rushes Business.
Measure To Purchase
Prison Farm Approved.

BY R. E. POWELL.

Spending its work through a mass fear that a quick sine die adjournment may follow, Governor Hardman's veto of the Battle-Allen bill to discount railroad rentals, the general assembly Friday completed action on six of the seven measures which have been brought to a final vote since the session convened January 6.

Two of them are potentially far-reaching in effect. After taking on an amendment that would take the $200,000 appropriated from the state highway board, the senate approved the house committee substitute authorizing a legislative commission to purchase a new state prison farm and industrialize it.

Without a single dissenting vote the house passed the resolution of Representative Gus Huddleston, of Meriwether county, authorizing the appointment of a commission to probe state departments between now and the regular session in June and report back a measure to "bring about economy in operation of the state government which the people at the polls have demonstrated they want." The house also approved the budget bill, previously passed in the senate, after striking out a provision which would have given the governor authority to allocate highway funds into the general treasury.

Veto Not Signed.

Governor Hardman's veto of the Battle-Allen bill is not expected to reach the assembly before midday Monday. Late Friday it had not been signed by Speaker Russell and after the speaker signs it it has to go back to the senate for President W. C. Neill's signature. The latter went to Columbus, his home, late Friday for the week-end.

The Russell reorganization move was launched in the house several days ago with the resolution to authorize a sweeping investigation of departments, naming particularly the school department and the banking department.

No Action on Report.

No action was taken in either branch upon the report of the joint conference committee which has recommended that the assembly adjourn sine die next Saturday if and when each branch has passed upon measures that were, on Thursday, pending in one house following passage in the other.

Strategy of the advocates of the rentals discount bill, which the governor has said he would reject when it reached him, remained uncertain as the session ended a busy week.

Noses have been counted both by proponents and opponents with the latter asserting that their noses will hold against a senate attempt to override the veto. The house, its leaders said, can muster enough votes to pass the bill without the signature of the governor.

Whatever happens—whether the veto is overridden or not, or as some members thought remotely probable, Governor Hardman decides to sign the bill—there will be a determined effort Monday to bring about its adjournment.

Action on Amendments.

Little else that this session is inclined to act upon remains now but for the house to concur in the senate's action on the rentals discount bill, which the governor has signed.

He also told the sheriff the kidnappers returned sometime during the night and related they had trouble with a watchman and had to hit him over the head.

The manager asserted he was held prisoner there until early this morning when his guard left for about 40 minutes, when he managed to extricate himself and make a report to officials.

"We know you have a boy going to college and have something to live for," Wegener quoted one of the men saying to him. "You won't be harmed if you give us this combination."

He also told the sheriff the kidnappers returned sometime during the night and related they had trouble with a watchman and had to hit him over the head.

John F. Aldridge, traffic patrolman at Peachtree street and Ponce de Leon avenue, with E. W. Everett, of 378 Seventh street, N. E., captured by the officer early Friday night, after Everett is alleged to have held up a shower of small shot from a shotgun in the hands of M. E. Flowers, manager. He was held Friday night by police on a technical charge of suspicion.

Druggist, Policeman Foil Holdup

John F. Aldridge, traffic patrolman at Peachtree street and Ponce de Leon avenue, with E. W. Everett, of 378 Seventh street, N. E., captured by the officer early Friday night, after Everett is alleged to have held up a shower of small shot from a shotgun in the hands of M. E. Flowers, manager. He was held Friday night by police on a technical charge of suspicion.

INTRUDER ROUTED
BY SHOTGUN BLAST
FLEES TO STREET

Woman Faints During Daring "Stick Up" of Lane Store at Ponce de Leon and Juniper.

PAY ROLL OF $154
TAKEN BY BANDITS

Employe of John H. Harland Co. Is Held Up by White Man and Two Negroes.

One man identified as a bandit whose holdup attempt at the Lane Drug store, Ponce de Leon and Juniper, met with a badly aimed blast from a shotgun Friday night, was in police custody, while officers sought another white man and two negroes wanted for the robbery of the John H. Harland Company pay roll late Friday afternoon.

A soda dispenser and the night manager of a Lane's Drug store, at the corner of Ponce de Leon avenue and Juniper street, early Friday night frustrated a holdup and caused the apprehension of E. W. Everett, 27-year-old World War veteran, of 378 Seventh street, N. E., charged with having attempted to rob the store and approximately eight customers, two of whom were women.

Dr. M. E. Flowers, of Clarkston, and George L. Rudd, 149 Third street, the store employees, had often planned just what they would do in the event anyone attempted to hold up the store at night. Therefore, shortly after 9 o'clock Friday night when a white man weighing about 200 pounds walked into the store and began to act suspiciously, Dr. Flowers stepped into the rear of the prescription counter, picked up a shotgun and crept silently to a balcony overlooking the inside of the store.

8 Customers in Store.

There were about eight customers in the store, and several rose to pay their checks. Rudd moved toward the cash register. The stranger walked to him and pulled a pistol from under his overcoat, the soda clerk asserted. The man then rifled the cash register and, cramping $70.19 into his coat pocket, turned on the customer and, with abusive language, began to kick several of the men on their shins. Rudd said. One of the women fainted.

Dr. Flowers, crouched in the balcony with the shotgun, vainly endeavored to attract the attention of the customers and to get them to move out of his line of fire. The man suddenly turned and ran toward the door and started out, however, and the way was clear for a shot. Dr. Flowers raised the gun—and three youths walked in the door. Too late to stop his trigger finger, he swung the gun up, breaking a large ceiling light and breaking a transom over the door.

The bandit then fled down Juniper street, followed by the crowd of ten or twelve persons who were returning from the Fox theater a short distance away. A taxi driver, A. B. Dumas, of 1315

Continued in Page 6, Column 7.

NORRIS SEES AID

FROM DEMOCRATS

FRANCE MAY FREE

AMERICAN BEAUTY

Republican Says Progressives' Only Hope Lies
With Democratic Party.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(P)—

Developments in the inquiry into the violent death of Fred G. Nixon-Nirdlinger, shot by his wife, the former Charlotte Nash, St. Louis, indicated Sunday that the wealthy Philadelphian theatrical magnate had forebodings of tragedy.

One was a strange sidelight uncovered when the United Press corre-spontaneous in one of the 1930 Christmas cards.

It contained a cartoon of the middle-aged husband, not being shot, but himself shooting his wife. Engraved on the first page of the Christmas card was the inscription: "As you see, son, will be.

The card was a double sheet with the inscription on the front page inside.

On one side between a picture of the E

Eggs Add Nourishment to Food

BY JESSIE MARIE DeBOTH

Eggs have not been so cheap at this season in many years, and it has been hard for us to realize that we need not skimp on them during the past two months. Now they are coming in even more freely, and we should take advantage of the situation. It is easy to increase the nourishment of many foods by adding eggs. Some dishes are improved by beaten egg and some take on hard cooked egg with agreeable results.

Cream soups and most sauces are pleasantly enriched with either beaten yolks or whole egg. Most menus can use sliced egg when cooked egg is not to hand and add food value. Hard yolks rubbed through a sieve blend so smoothly that their presence is not apparent, but the goodness is there. Still another way of adding egg to baked items in poached or baked items, changing both appearance and flavor. For perfect enjoyment the eggs must be cooked to a nicely—if underdone they are repelling and all delicacy is lost if the white hardens. A shimmering jelly-like consistency is the test of correctly shirred eggs. The little heat-proof dishes for individual use are ideal for such service. They make an attractive appearance, hold heat well, and make possible the use of various otherwise hopeless leftovers. Indeed, one may use different foods in each one, quite easily, thus pleasing personal taste, as well as utilizing seasonings and condiments. The cost of these dishes is an economical investment. Remember though, that cooking continues in these hot little containers after they are out of the oven; so allow for this, or the eggs will be hard instead of a quivering mass. Almost any cold vegetable dish, like the hundred dishes before the egg is placed in the center. It is well to have it hot too, or the time required to heat in the oven will overcook the egg. Bits of meat may be scattered through a bland foundation to add character. If we may use boiled, mashed or hashed potato, macaroni and some of the cereals. An agreeable combination consists of crumbled bread, well seasoned and moistened with rich milk, with minced

WOMAN IS JAILED IN CONTEMPT CASE

CHICAGO, March 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Shirley E. Kub, once an undercover investigator for the police commissioner, was held in contempt of court today by Chief Justice John D. McGroarty, of the criminal court, and was sentenced to the county jail for four months.

Mrs. Kub was cited for her failure to appear at the call of the special grand jury January 20. She once remarked she had enough knowledge of the Chicago police to "blow up" the entire force. Her testimony was wanted in the grand jury's investigation of corruption and graft in the department.

Judge McGroarty refused to allow her liberty on bond and ordered her sent to jail forthwith.

Newest Styles! Lowest Prices!

Outstanding styles in fine footwear at a real bargain price. See these shoes.

You will be amazed at the remarkable values.

$2.95

Every new style and material included.

Plenty of Sizes
2 1/2 to 9

Women's Slippers

Special lot of new women's slippers in straps and pumps.

$1.98

House Slippers

Clean-up of 600 pairs higher priced house slippers. All sizes.

39c

To Jewish People....

All Jewish retail stores will sell Manischewitz Matzon this year 13c a pound.

BROAD STREET MARKET

112 Broad St., S. W.

PIG HAMS	13 1/2c
FRESH PORK CHOPS	13 1/2c
PURE LARD	9 1/2c
SMALL SUGAR-CURED PICNIC HAMS	12 1/2c
NUT OLEO	11c
KINGAN Sugar-Cured HAMS, Whole or Half	17 1/2c
SMALL LAMB LEGS	17 1/2c
FRESH HOMEMADE PORK SAUSAGE	12 1/2c
CENTER CUT-SLICED HAM	29c
COUNTRY BACKBONE	12 1/2c
FRESH CREAM CHEESE	17 1/2c
SLICED BACON, Bind Off	17 1/2c
FRESH SPARE RIBS	9 1/2c
BOILING MEAT	9 1/2c

SECURITY SCRATCH FEED

Has No Equal For Quality

INGREDIENTS
Yellow Steel-Cut Corn, Wheat, Whole Oat Groats, 1% Sunflower Seed, Kaffir.

With Your Eyes You Can See Quality Standing Out in Security Scratch.

Security Laying Mash and Baby Chick Feed of Same High Quality.

Atlanta Dealers

NICKAJACK MILLING CO.

309 Marietta St., MA. 9217

G. D. ADAMS

Lakewood & Stewart Ave., CA. 8192

M. O. HEMPERLY CO.

East Point, CA. 1510

H. A. LEFTWICH

1635 Janshore Rd., MA. 2248

J. R. MORRIS

277 Peters St., MA. 2668

M. W. HESTER

874 Flint Shells Ave., MA. 3716

J. M. HAYNIE

Stone Mountain, Ga.

10 Pure Lard

57

HEINZ Tomato ketchup

It's the simmered-down essence of vine-ripened tomatoes, delicately spiced.

ALAGA The Quality Syrup

"Good Every Drop"

That wonderful Georgia Cane flavor of ALAGA never fails to make a hit. Its golden-brown goodness has made it a favorite on Southerners' tables for over 23 years. No other syrup has that delicious taste, that wonderfully blended flavor of ALAGA.

Write today to Alabama Georgia Syrup Co., Dept. A, Montgomery, Ala., for ALAGA Recipe Book containing over 100 recipes for dairy desserts, confections and candies.

Fresh Pig Heads

Fresh Boiling Bacon

Fresh Mullet

Fresh Pig Shoulders

Fresh Pig Sides

Fresh Spare Ribs

Country Backbone

Picnic Hams

Pork Shoulders

Pork Sausage

Lamb Shoulders

Fresh Pig Ham

Pork Steak

Side Bacon

Sliced Ham

Sliced Bacon

Full Cream Cheese

Lamb Legs

Lamb Chops

Center-Cut Ham

Brookfield Butter

No. 10 Pure Lard

95c

ATLANTA IS JAILED IN HOTEL SHOOTING

H. G. Lansdale Under $2,000
Bond; Arkansas Legislator Improves.

With the man he is wounded through the door of a bedroom in a Little Rock hotel slightly improved and given an even chance to recover, H. G. Lansdale, 31, of 318 Room street, S. W., faced charges of assault with intent to kill Thursday, and was held by Little Rock police under a $2,000 bond Friday.

The wounded man, W. U. McCauley, a Arkansas legislator, who was shot near the heart, remained unconscious and no effort will be made for a few days to remove the bullet, physi- cians said.

The shooting followed a complaint that McCauley slept at the hotel and McCauley was drunk and creating a disturbance in his room. Lansdale, who is a travelling salesman for a refrigerating equipment company, was quoted by the clerk as saying, "If you don't stop him, I will." Police, searching Lansdale's room, found a small caliber pistol smelling of gunpowder in a handbag.

TENNESSEE PROBERS ARE READY TO REPORT

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 13.—(AP)—Probers to follow Senator Walter F. "Faulkner" of state affairs, investigators opportunity to explore the purchasing department and other branches of the state government tonight claimed ample votes to secure an adjournment shortly after the legislature reconvenes.

The Faulkner committee today completed its draft of a 12,000-word report dealing with the failures of banks in which Colonel Luke Lea, Nashville publisher, and Rogers Caldwell, financier, were interested. The banks closed with more than $6,000,000 of state deposits.

The report, to be submitted to the legislature next week, will ask an additional recess to allow the committee time to conduct public hearings into the various state departments. Chairman Faulkner said he had received several letters dealing with the purchasing department, which forecast matters which would make revelations already made to the committee "pale into insignificance."

Proponents of an additional recess favored adjournments of from two months to as many six months.

While the legislators considered plans for further activity, attachés of the office of District Attorney-General Richard M. Atkinson continued the preparation of bills of indictment for presentation to the Davidson county grand jury next week.

In its first move since the bank failures, the grand jury last week named Rogers Caldwell, president of Caldwell & Company, now in receivership, in two indictments charging the fraudulent substitution of securities placed with the Bank of Tennessee, a Caldwell subsidiary, by Hardeman county.

Mr. Caldwell also was indicted in federal court at Greeneville, Tenn., along with Colonel Lea and J. Basil Ramsey, former president of the closed Holston Union National bank at Knoxville, in connection with alleged violations of national banking laws in transactions with the Knoxville institution. Colonel Lea and Mr. Caldwell surrendered here last night and made bond, walking past reporters and cameramen who had camped at the federal building all day for a sight of them.

Mr. Ramsey also is under $25,000 bond on a state indictment brought at Knoxville in connection with the closing of the Holston Trust Company, a state subsidiary of the national bank.

CORNED SUSPECT SHOOTS DETECTIVE

NEW YORK, March 13.—(AP)—Detective George Schmedel was wounded today by two shots fired by Francis Crowley, who, police say, is a nephew of Patrick Crowley, president of the New York Central lines. The shooting occurred on the nineteenth floor of a Lexington avenue office building.

Police and detectives surrounded the building and made a floor-to-floor search for Crowley, whose arrest has been sought in connection with the shooting of two men February 22.

Schmedel was in an office in the building on a tip that Crowley would come there. When Crowley entered, the detective took a pistol from him. He said that Crowley drew another pistol from a shoulder holster and shot him.

He followed Crowley as he ran out and fired at him as he ran down the stairs. Crowley is believed to have been wounded.

CIGARET ADVERTISING METHOD HIT IN BILL

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 13.—(AP)—Cigarette billboard advertising with pictures of women or children would be prohibited under a bill passed by the house today, 64 to 15, and sent to the senate.

The bill declares such advertising as would encourage use of cigarettes by boys, girls or women to be "harmful to the welfare of the state and to public policy."

Ill-Stared "Thirteenth" Day of Days for Marbut

Friday the thirteenth! Day of ill men to most folks, but it is the day of days for Arthur R. Marbut, of the Fulton county ordinary's office. Friday was Marbut's birthday, and 13 years set like the reverse. Marbut was born on Sunday, March 13, 1870, at Conyers, and has lived here for 55 years. Friday the thirteenth is his luckiest day, and the one on which he started his first home, Marbut said.

Mrs. A. S. Batterton, marriage license clerk in the ordinary's office, is also a Friday the thirteenth fan. Mrs. Batterton was born on Friday the thirteenth, and celebrated her birthday on Friday, February 13. She lives on Thirteenth street, and the number of her house, 76, added up makes 13.

Cab Riding Complex Brings Girl to Court

OMAHA, Neb., March 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Fred Shaw was in police court yesterday, charged with riding about in a taxicab, but her husband complained that she would call on him several times a day to pay the bills and annoyed him so much that he lost a job he had held for 14 years.

"She will be afraid," he said, "that she will get the pedestrianitis, or something like that."

Mrs. Shaw listened to a lecture from the judge about economy, and then left police headquarters—in a taxicab.

CROWDS CHEER KING OF SPAIN AT STATION

MADRID, March 13.—(AP)—A cheering crowd surrounded a railway station here tonight as King Alfonso left for a ten-day trip to London by way of Paris. In the British capital the king will visit the Princess Beatrice, mother of the queen of Spain, who has been ill several months. His departure was taken as indicating his confidence in the tranquillity of Spain.

CHARLOTTE RAIDERS PUT 27 IN JAIL

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 31.—(AP)—Federal prohibition agents arrested 27 persons on charges of liquor law violations in a series of raids here today.

J. E. Kanipe, deputy administrator of prohibition for Western North Carolina, headed a force of 20 officers making the raids.

Kanipe said he held 40 warrants, based on evidence secured by undercover agents, but did not expect to serve them today. Seven of those arrested were negroes, including three women. One white woman was arrested.

Mrs. Bertie Scott, operator of "Scottie's place," a night club, and Don Anderson, one of her associates, were among the persons arrested. The others were of no prominence.

ROOSEVELT CLUB FORMED IN OREGON

PORLTAND, Ore., March 13.—(AP)—A Roosevelt for President Club has been formed to further the nomination and election of Governor Roosevelt, of New York, to the presidency of the United States. All officers are Portland business or professional men.

Body Will Study Other Systems In Effort To Solve School Problem

Details of operation and maintenance of other public school systems of representative cities in Atlanta's class will be sought by the special committee named to solve the problem presented by the local schools. It was created Friday afternoon, it was decided. The two subcommittees, which will fall the task of diagnosing the ill of the borough's educational program.

Marion Smith will head a special committee charged with the responsibility of examining the educational systems of other cities and the committee will form the research laboratory from which recommendations are expected to come. The other committee, headed by Alderman J. Charlie Murphy, chairman of the city's finance committee, will direct its attention toward an attempt to solve the present financial crisis faced by the school department in its inability to adopt a budget because expenditures exceed appropriations by more than $800,000.

The Murphy committee will delve into every phase of education and will seek a permanent dissolution of the financial rocks on which the Atlanta schools find themselves each year, while the Murphy committee will di-

Negro Gets Life Term.

Ed Watkins, negro, Friday was sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge John D. Humphries, of Fulton superior court, on conviction of the murder of Guy Parrish. The jury recommended mercy. Parrish was slain with a pistol November 9, 1930.

Walter H. Rich, chairman of the trial, announced that another session will be held at 2:30 o'clock next Friday afternoon at Rich's, Inc.

TWO CAPONE GUNMEN ARE FREED IN CHICAGO

Lack of Evidence Causes
Court to Drop Concealed Weapons Charges.

CHICAGO, March 13.—(AP)—Dapper Jack McGurn and Tony Accardo, both reputed machine gunners for Al Capone, were freed on charges of carrying concealed weapons today.

The charge against McGurn was dismissed by Assistant State's Attorney Wilkie Han after he had informed Criminal Court Judge Ross C. Hall that the further evidence against the public enemy was found.

He is survived by his widow and two children.

ing the outcome of McGurn's case, Assistant State Attorney Abraham Marovitz appeared before Judge Joseph Burke in criminal court to drop the charges against him.

OFFICIAL OF CLOSED BANK ENDS LIFE

LOUDON, Tenn., March 13.—(AP)—The body of Hugh Thomas, 53, vice president of the Bank of Loudon, which closed its doors February 28, was found in the bathroom of his home today, his chest torn by a shotgun charge. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide.

Officers said members of the family ran to the bathroom when they heard a shot, and found Thomas lying on the floor, dying. They said he had apparently placed the butt of the shotgun on the floor, dressed the muzzle against himself and pulled the trigger with a rifle ramrod.

Thomas returned two weeks ago from Texas, where he had an interest in an oil and gas development. The bank it was said, closed during his absence.

He is survived by his widow and two children.

ing the outcome of McGurn's case, Assistant State Attorney Abraham Marovitz appeared before Judge Joseph Burke in criminal court to drop the charges against him.

Okay Night Work Ban.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 13.—(AP)—Night work in industry for women under 18 years of age in North Carolina will be prohibited under a bill passed by the senate today. It had already passed the house.

To Avoid Confusion

We announce that millions of United Profit-Sharing Premium Coupons issued annually by this company bear no expiration date and are always redeemable.

United Cigar Store Certificates will be redeemed by us until April 30, 1931.

As specialists for 17 years in Sales Promotion Premium Plans, we invite inquiries from prospective clients.

United Profit-Sharing Corporation

44 West 18th Street

New York City

Now...Shell makes it possible for motorists to save MILLIONS

See, on this chart, what Shell has done... It may cut down your driving costs many dollars

HOW many motorists need buy extra-priced gasoline to get utmost efficiency from their motors?

With so many types of gasoline on the market, and with such a confusion of claims for them, the car owner has been bewildered.

Shell does not want to sell premium gasoline for engines that do not need it. As a simple matter of good business, Shell believes it pays to give motorists what they ought to have.

Shell is now ready to supply gasoline—at regular prices—which more than 75% of all cars can use with perfect satisfaction.

New Improved Shell 400

Shell offers it to all car owners today. New Improved Shell 400—a unique gasoline that marks a great step forward in motor fuels.

In anti-knock value, New Improved Shell 400 is far above common regular priced gasolines—in fact, above many premium priced brands.

At least 3 out of 4 motorists can use it—and forget any question of paying an extra 3 cents per gallon! New Improved Shell 400 will give them full anti-knock value, quick starting and power, at a real money saving.

A second important advance— Super-Shell Ethyl

For the 25% of cars that should not use New Improved Shell 400, Shell has perfected Super-Shell Ethyl! To a fine grade of high test gasoline—exceptionally volatile, quick starting and powerful—has been added a heavy Ethyl fluid content.

This 25% of cars cannot run perfectly on "just any" premium fuel. If they could, New Improved Shell 400 at regular prices would serve them.

They need Super-Shell Ethyl's extremely high anti-knock value, its instant pick-up. There is a saving to them in every filling of Super-Shell Ethyl—a saving in future repair bills, as well as in mileage and performance!

Make this test

Take advantage of these new fuels. Test New Improved Shell 400 in your own car. 75% will find they can save real money by using it.

Then, if your car is one that needs Super-Shell Ethyl, you can tell on one tankful of this super fuel. Try New Improved Shell 400 first—then Super-Shell Ethyl if you require it.

Does it give you more mileage?

While there is evidence that New Improved Shell 400 gives most cars more miles per gallon, only the experience of thousands of drivers can verify this saving. Your Shell station man, at the time he fills your gasoline tank, will hand you a post card like that above. Use New Improved Shell 400 and then tell us, by marking and mailing the post card, whether you secure more miles per gallon from it. Your co-operation may help others to reduce their motoring costs.

A GREAT STEP FORWARD IN MOTOR FUELS

At last, a measuring unit for anti-knock values—the new Octane Number ratings! To establish them, Shell tested hundreds of gasolines. Common fuels were found to lack sufficient anti-knock value for many cars.

Now, note the chart. Here is fuel at the regular price that is ideal for 75% of all cars.

The highest Octane Number requirement of these cars is 58. New Improved Shell 400 exceeds this figure—tests about 60.

Super-Shell Ethyl, with an Octane Number of 74, exceeds the anti-knock requirement of any stock automobile. It is recommended only for those cars it can benefit.

NEW IMPROVED SHELL 400

Definitely better than many present premium fuels, yet sold at regular prices—at least 75% of all cars can use it satisfactorily

SUPER- SHELL Ethyl

For the less than 25% of cars which require an extremely high anti-knock value to operate most efficiently. Priced three cents more per gallon

S H ELL P E T R O L E U M C O R P O R A T I O N

COMMITTEE APPROVES WIDENING OF HIGHLAND

Section From Harris to Ponce de Leon Involved; North Ave. Grading Favored.

Widening of Highland avenue five feet on each side, from Harris street to Ponce de Leon avenue, and grading of North avenue from Glenn Irvin drive to Kennesaw avenue, were favored Friday afternoon by the streets committee of council.

Councilman John A. White is a proponent of the plan to widen Highland and is working to carry the widening to Virginia avenue. Clarke Donaldson, chief of construction, was asked to prepare plans and estimates for the project.

Fulton county commissioners were asked to grade North avenue. Sewers already have been laid along the path of the grading, and it was pointed out that the improvement is needed here.

Commissioners also were asked to pave the parkway in the center of Parkway drive from Ponce de Leon avenue to Piedmont park, and Georgia avenue from Sylvan road to Stewart avenue.

ZONING MEASURES TO FACE COUNCIL

Two proposed ordinances affecting future petitions governing zoning and changing of street names will be offered to council Monday with the approval of the borough planning commission, it was announced Friday afternoon.

Signatures of at least 50 per cent of property owners in the affected area will be required in all cases in the future, if the measures are approved.

In addition, Alderman James E. Burdette, Littleton, who was elected Friday, will seek to have council pass ordinances placing purchases of school equipments under the borough purchasing agent. This, however, will meet a snag in the borough charter, which has divorced the school board from council.

BLACKFRIARS CLUB TO PRESENT PLAY

The Blackfriars Dramatic Club of Agnes Scott College Saturday will present its spring production, "Op-o-Me-Thumb" by Friedrich Finn and Richard Fiske, and "Love is Like That and Men Folks" by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements will be the offerings this year.

The cast of "Op-o-Me-Thumb" will include the Misses Julian Thompson, Mary Frances Torrance, Anna Louise Chandler, Mary Esther Wallace, Ruthie McLean, Betty Bolling, and "Love is Like That" will be played by the Misses Margaret Ellis, Lucille Woolard, and Mary Lillian Garretson, while Miss Elizabeth Simpson, Miss Thompson and Miss Garretson will do "Men Folks." The production will be open to the public.

HEBREW PUPILS TO HOLD SERVICES

Pupils of the United Hebrew school will conduct the evening services of the Congregation Anshei Sfard at 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Max Aschman, 11, will officiate as cantor assisted by a chorus of his schoolmates.

The United school is the only community Hebrew institution in the city, and provides the children with a Hebrew education, regardless of their parents' instruction given in Hebrew writing and reading, Jewish history, Bible in the original, current events, customs and ceremonies. The faculty, headed by Dr. David Beth-Lahmy, principal, is composed of college graduates, especially trained for the profession.

DOOMED MAN GIVEN NEW TRIAL RULING

Newly discovered evidence, the supreme court held Friday, is sufficient to authorize a new trial for Tom King, Butts county negro, who was sentenced to death for slaying Dr. E. M. Nair, a county policeman. The negro was convicted and originally sentenced to die September 21, 1928. Two previous appeals to the high court were unsuccessful.

THREE ARE INDICTED FOR AIDING ESCAPES

Indictments charging two persons with aiding escape of three felony convicts from the Fulton county gaol were returned Friday by the grand jury. Homer Williams was charged with helping the escape of Sam Trimble and LeRoy Carter, and St. Louis was indicted on a charge of helping Jesse Langston to escape. The defendants cut off shackles of the escaped prisoners and harbored them on February 24, it was alleged.

SIMPSON REINSTATED TO SANITARY POSITION

James E. Simpson, former assistant to the chief of the sanitary department, whose job was abolished by council the first of the year, was reinstated Friday by the sanitary committee as a flusher, and Jack Lee, sanitary truck driver, was asked to resign.

Supreme Court of Georgia Judgments Affirmed.

Loyd et al. vs. Camp from Fulton superior court; Madeline M. R. Evans, plaintiff in error, Nathan Harris, contra; Napier vs. Camp from Bibb superior court; Judge Jones, Bill Nix, contra; Bill Nix, for plaintiff, Harris, Harris & Popper, for defendant; Clarke, superintendent from Fulton superior court; Judge Humphries, Alexander S. Johnson, for plaintiff; John S. Woodard, for defendant; Bill Nix, solicitor-general; J. Walter Letcaw, for defendant.

King vs. Brown et al. from Fulton superior court; Judge E. D. Thomas, Jason Andrews, Roy S. Drennan, for plaintiff; Alvin L. Ruff, for defendant.

Wallace, L. State, from Gordon superior court; Judge Pittman, Rufus V. Jones, for plaintiff in error; George M. Napier, attorney-general, contra; T. E. G. Gresham, T. E. Gresham, T. E. G. Gresham, contra.

Phillips et al. vs. State from Lawrence superior court; Camp, Danner & Watson, G. C. Ridgwood, for plaintiff; George M. Napier, attorney-general, Fred Keay, attorney-general, contra.

Judgments Reversed.

King vs. State; from Fulton superior court; Judge Pittman, Rufus V. Jones, H. M. Fletcher, Joel B. Mallet, for plaintiff in error; Frank C. Willingham, solicitor-general, contra; Dorsett vs. Roberts; from Chatham superior court; Judge Meldrum, Farr & Richer, for plaintiff; error; Cobe & Bright, contra.

Dismised.

Phillips vs. Tyre, tax collector, et al.; from Appling superior court; Judge Pittman, Rufus V. Jones, H. M. Fletcher, Joel B. Mallet, for plaintiff in error; Frank C. Willingham, solicitor-general, contra; Dorsett vs. Roberts; from Chatham superior court; Judge Meldrum, Farr & Richer, for plaintiff; error; Cobe & Bright, contra.

Qualified Questions Resolved.

Hold vs. Bibb Brokerage Company; Hubbard vs. Bibb Brokerage Company; from Bibb superior court; for appeal; E. F. Goodman, L. Smith, R. E. Jackson, for plaintiffs in error; Nottingham & Nottingham, Luther U. Bloodworth, R. R. Jackson, contra.

Saturday at High's

New Ascot and Tubular SCARFS

$1

Of Crepe-de-Chine

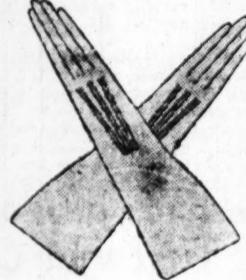

Blown in on the March breezes — these new scarfs are rainbow shaded in brilliant combinations! Gay and youthful for sports wear!

NECKWEAR-HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Fownes' Kid Gloves

Slip-on Styles

$3.95

Finest kid gloves for dress and street wear. Also Kid gloves in washable slip-on suedes. All colors for Spring!

GLOVES-HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

1,000
Boxes
Fine
$1 to $1.25

Stationery

49c

Full Quire Boxes
24 Sheets and 24
Envelopes, Lined

STATIONERY-HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

5,000 Pairs Standard Makes Silk Hosiery

Full Fashioned—As Listed—at

No. 300 As-You-Like-It;
McCallum's 1900-1901;
Kayser's 100-X, 101-X,
Westcott's Dullfast;
Ventura No. 455 Dull.

$1

Sheer chiffons and sturdy service weights in all the smartest, newest shades for Spring wear! Think of getting these brands at just $1! All sizes.

HOSIERY-HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

The Younger Set Gets Ready for Easter!

No School Today So They Will Shop at High's Where They Are Sure of Finding Smart Style at Low Price

The Boys' Store Offers These New

2-Knicker SUITS

$7.45

Newest patterns and colors in cassimeres, tweeds and herringbone weaves. Sturdily made with 2 pairs of golf knickers, man's vest and coat. Sizes 8 to 14 years.

Blue Cheviot
2-Long-Pants SUITS

$12.95

More popular than ever this season! Newest Spring styles. Exquisitely tailored and long wearing. Also new tweeds, cassimeres and herringbone weaves. Sizes 12 to 19. Alterations free.

Boys' Better
Wash Suits

$1

Flappers, sailors, double-breasted, and a variety of novelty effects. Broadcloths, poplins and other fine suiting materials. Solids and combinations. Sizes 3 to 9.

BOYS' STORE-HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Sale of Fine Perfumes

49c
Dram

$6.00 Oz. Linfini
$6.00 Oz. Caron Mode
$5.50 Oz. Caron Narcissus
$5.00 Oz. Dorsey Dandy
$5.50 Oz. Dorsey Jasmine
$5.00 Oz. Dorsey Toujours Fidele

GIRLS' WEAR-HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

50c Size Listerine

The perfect mouth wash. 39c

$1.50 Combination Hot Water Bottle and Syringe

A healthy-home special at this low price today! 79c

25c Mavis Talcum

Delicately oiled for after-bath luxury 3 for 50c

50c Size Coty's Talc

In delightful odors. Special for Saturday..... 79c

1,000 25c Kleenex
Cold Cream Remover

Here's a value in beauty. Special... 3 for 50c

25c Colgate's Tooth Paste

To keep your teeth clean and healthy. 3 for 50c

1,000 Regular $1
Coty's Compacts
Single Style

$1.75 and $2

1,000 Regular $1
Coty's Compacts
Single Style

39c

Cake powder in several fragrant odors and shades for every complexion. Special value for Saturday!

TOILET GOODS-HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

79c

Give your hair the thorough brushing it needs to look its loveliest! A Special Saving Here!

FURNITURE-HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Saturday at High's

Redfern Corselettes

To Help You Control Those Curves

$5

Of silk brocade in the high waist line style, with lacing down the back. Silk surgical elastic inserts in the sides. To give your figure the firm lines so necessary this spring. Sizes 34 to 44.

CORSETS-HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

Dainty New Arrivals in Silk Lingerie

*Slips, Teddies
Dandettes
Step-ins and Panties*

$1.79

French crepe and crepe back satin in lacy, dainty styles or trimly tailored ones. Pastel shades; all sizes.

Glove Silk Panties

And step-ins. Tailored and lace trimmed. Panties with yoke back and front. Button on the side. A real value for you Saturday at

The New Styles Say—

COP-FORM

Brassieres

$1

In the up-lift, cup-form styles, Satin, lace, brocade and silk jersey in sizes 32 to 38.

LINGERIE-HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

Continuing Sale 29c to 79c

New Wash Goods

22c
Yd.

WASH GOODS-HIGH'S MAIN FLOOR

Adding Beauty to Your Home With This

3-Pc. Living Room Suite

An Actual $69.50 Value—Today for

$49.50

Sturdily constructed... a beautiful suite that will add much to the comfort and charm of your home. In four covers to choose from. Guaranteed construction.

$4.50 Cash
$5.00 Month

FURNITURE-HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

J. M. HIGH CO.

48 Years a "Modern" Store

"Shop High's and See for Yourself"

Good Luggage at High's... Always!

Attacks by American Armies Along Vesle Described by Pershing

Hard Fighting by 32d Division Under General Haan Bared by Chief; Plans for Battle Followed Closely.

BY GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING.

(Copyright, 1931, in all countries by The North American Newspaper Alliance—World rights reserved, including the scanning of the whole or in part prohibited.)

CHAPTER LXII.

An attack by the French tenth army, begun August 29, was undertaken to force the retirement of the enemy from the Vesle and Aisne rivers. On its relief from the Vesle August 7 the thirty-second American division (Haan) was assigned to the tenth army and entered the line August 28, immediately undertaking a series of local operations, in which gains were made in the face of very heavy fire. Ravines and numerous caves in the region provided ideal cover for the defending troops.

The general attack of the army the following day met but slight success, the enemy resisting desperately. The next day, the thirty-second had reached the St. Mihiel-Saint-Quentin road, where it was relieved September 2. The thirty-second division had advanced nearly three miles, and its success contributed greatly to the forced withdrawal of the German line from the Aisne river.

A parley was held between General Petain and myself, the sector from Port-sur-Saône (east of the Moselle river) to Watronville (north of les Eperges), 42 miles in extent, then occupied by the entire French third army and a part of the French second army, which had been transferred to my command August 30.

The front included the St. Mihiel salient, which was between these points and embraced the permanent fortresses around Toul. The St. Mihiel operation had reached the St. Mihiel-Saint-Quentin road, where it was relieved September 2. The thirty-second division had advanced nearly three miles, and its success contributed greatly to the forced withdrawal of the German line from the Aisne river.

As we saw, there had been a great deal of discussion leading up to the understanding regarding the St. Mihiel offensive. The 16th American instructions had been issued to me and these had been supplemented from time to time by verbal directions, and now everything was moving smoothly toward readiness for the attack.

In my conversation with Marshal Foch as late as August 25 he had suggested the extension of our front on the west of the salient. Two French corps in the sector had been assigned to my command and arrangements for their transfer to the area of auxiliary troops had been made. I had been in touch with him on this point.

Supporting his plans further, Marshal Foch suggested that for the operation in the Aisne he could put both General DeGoutte, who was thoroughly familiar with that region, and General Massier, who was well acquainted with the country and was chief artillery of the fourth army, at my disposal to assist with the aid of an American staff, in preparing the Aisne operation while I was engaged in the Vesle.

The marshal began by saying that the German armies were in more or less permanent retreat from the Allies and that we must not allow them to reorganize, and that the British would continue their attack in the direction of Cambrai and St. Quentin and the French toward Meuse.

The marshal then re-stated his proposal and suggested that if the two American contingents, one being the group assigned to the French second army and the other the proposed American army on opposite sides of the Argonne, would eventually join forces, he could see only advantage in this.

The further we proceeded the more apparent it became to me that the result of these proposals would be to frustrate or at least seriously delay forming a distinct American army. In this event, it was certain that despite the contribution of our splendid units, whatever success might be attained, would be counted as the achievement of the French armies and our participation would be entirely secondary.

I asked why these Americans which Marshal Foch proposed should go to the Souin road, to be prepared to attack for "various reasons" about Cambrai. Foch repeated what I had often said, that the American army was to be used to seize the Argonne forest, and people expected the army to act as a unit and not be dispersed in this way.

I pointed out that each time we were about to complete the organization of our army, some proposition like this was presented to prevent it.

"Do you wish to go to battle?" Marshal Foch broke in.

"Most assuredly," I replied, "but as an American army and in no other way."

He argued that there would not be time, whereupon I said: "If you will assign me a sector I will take it at once."

"Where would it be?" he asked.

"Wherever you say." I responded, saying that the French had insisted on our shipping to France only infantry and machine gun units, and had made the distinct promise that they would supply us with artillery and other auxiliary troops when needed.

I pointed out that he himself had made repeated and urgent requests for these limited shipments, and had promised that we would be furnished whatever necessary to complete our organization until our own auxiliary troops should arrive. I then demanded that he fulfill these promises.

Marshal Foch adhered to his proposal, saying however, that he was disposed to consider an arrangement that would keep the American army together. My reply was that I was ready to send divisions west of the Argonne forest as an American army, but not to serve in the French sector, as I had asserted that this would not leave the French armies enough troops with which to attack, ignoring my argument that the question was as broad as it was long, and that he could transfer French as easily as he could American divisions.

Pershing's Resentment Surprises Foch. After this arrangement was agreed upon, first, that we should operate east of the Meuse river, and second, west of the Argonne forest, both of which he rejected, I proposed flatly that the front of the American army be extended to include the sector between the Meuse and the Argonne.

Marshal Foch suggested that if I could give a satisfactory solution which would permit the execution of

U. S. Machine Gunners Snipe at Enemy

AN AMERICAN MACHINE GUN NEST.

it scattered among the Allied forces, where it will not be an American army, all."

He was apparently surprised at my answer, but had no objection to the American effort to subordinate roles, and said: "I must insist upon the arrangement," to which I replied, as we both rose:

"You may insist all you please, but I decline to agree to your plan. While our army will fight wherever you may decide, it will not fight except as an independent American army."

I pointed out to him that I had depended upon him to assist in carrying out the organization of my army, that my government, from the present down, insisted upon it, and that we had all been criticized for parcelling out our troops here and there.

I drew Marshal Foch's attention to the fact that the American army should fight as such "in the west front."

He said he was disposed to do what he could toward forming an American army. He then picked up his maps and papers and left, very pale and apparently exhausted, saying at the door as he handed me the memorandum of his proposal that he thought that after careful study I should arrive at the same conclusion he had.

The impression this meeting left on my mind was that Marshal Foch was inclined to aid in the formation of an American army, but that upon reaching a certain point he had allowed himself to be persuaded to take the view that after the reduction of the St. Mihiel salient it should be split up as proposed. With the added support of American troops, which in the second army largely American troops would not take over the command until the night before the attack.

As we saw, there had been a great deal of discussion leading up to the understanding regarding the St. Mihiel offensive. The 16th American instructions had been issued to me and these had been supplemented from time to time by verbal directions, and now everything was moving smoothly toward readiness for the attack.

In my conversation with Marshal Foch as late as August 25 he had suggested the extension of our front on the west of the salient. Two French corps in the sector had been assigned to my command and arrangements for their transfer to the area of auxiliary troops had been made. I had been in touch with him on this point.

Supporting his plans further, Marshal Foch suggested that for the operation in the Aisne he could put both General DeGoutte, who was thoroughly familiar with that region, and General Massier, who was well acquainted with the country and was chief artillery of the fourth army, at my disposal to assist with the aid of an American staff, in preparing the Aisne operation while I was engaged in the Vesle.

The marshal began by saying that the German armies were in more or less permanent retreat from the Allies and that we must not allow them to reorganize, and that the British would continue their attack in the direction of Cambrai and St. Quentin and the French toward Meuse.

The marshal then re-stated his proposal and suggested that if the two American contingents, one being the group assigned to the French second army and the other the proposed American army on opposite sides of the Argonne, would eventually join forces, he could see only advantage in this.

The further we proceeded the more apparent it became to me that the result of these proposals would be to frustrate or at least seriously delay forming a distinct American army. In this event, it was certain that despite the contribution of our splendid units, whatever success might be attained, would be counted as the achievement of the French armies and our participation would be entirely secondary.

I asked why these Americans which Marshal Foch proposed should go to the Souin road, to be prepared to attack for "various reasons" about Cambrai. Foch repeated what I had often said, that the American army was to be used to seize the Argonne forest, and people expected the army to act as a unit and not be dispersed in this way.

I pointed out that each time we were about to complete the organization of our army, some proposition like this was presented to prevent it.

"Do you wish to go to battle?" Marshal Foch broke in.

"Most assuredly," I replied, "but as an American army and in no other way."

He argued that there would not be time, whereupon I said: "If you will assign me a sector I will take it at once."

"Where would it be?" he asked.

"Wherever you say." I responded, saying that the French had insisted on our shipping to France only infantry and machine gun units, and had made the distinct promise that they would supply us with artillery and other auxiliary troops when needed.

I pointed out that he himself had made repeated and urgent requests for these limited shipments, and had promised that we would be furnished whatever necessary to complete our organization until our own auxiliary troops should arrive. I then demanded that he fulfill these promises.

Marshal Foch adhered to his proposal, saying however, that he was disposed to consider an arrangement that would keep the American army together. My reply was that I was ready to send divisions west of the Argonne forest as an American army, but not to serve in the French sector, as I had asserted that this would not leave the French armies enough troops with which to attack, ignoring my argument that the question was as broad as it was long, and that he could transfer French as easily as he could American divisions.

Pershing's Resentment Surprises Foch. After this arrangement was agreed upon, first, that we should operate east of the Meuse river, and second, west of the Argonne forest, both of which he rejected, I proposed flatly that the front of the American army be extended to include the sector between the Meuse and the Argonne.

Marshal Foch suggested that if I could give a satisfactory solution which would permit the execution of

CLEAR AWAY SKIN IRRITATION WITH RESINOL

Whether it is a single pimple or a pronounced case of acne—a mild rash or a form of eczema—a minor sore or tormenting piles, you will find the soothing properties of Resinol Ointment speak to relieve and heal the disorder. Apply freely. You can't do better to relieve sores too irritated for its healing medication. Resinol Soap for the daily toilet keeps the skin soft and clear. Resinol products at all drugstores.

SAMPLE FREE: Write today to Resinol, Dept. 57, Baltimore, Md.

Army Orders

WASHINGTON, March 13.—(Special)—Lieutenant General C. P. Porter, infantry, to await retirement. Condon C. McCormack, medical corps, to Washington. Majors James A. Dorst, engineers, to Industrial College, Washington. Captain C. Anderson, field artillery, to await retirement. Robert M. Carwell, coast artillery, to Fort Monroe, Va. Captain Leander Larson, quartermaster corps, to Alameda, Calif. Captain J. R. Owens, coast artillery, to Panama. Robert J. Buskirk, coast artillery, to Fort Monroe, Va. First Lieutenant Francis B. Kane, coast artillery, to Panama.

The discussion was somewhat heated and much of it was carried on so rapidly that it could not be transcribed. He continued to reiterate his demands for the adoption of his plan, and I have been compelled to do the same, as it is necessary to be very firm in dealing with him, and I finally said, in effect: "Marshal Foch, you have no authority as Allied commander-in-chief to call upon me to yield up my command of the American army to have

TARRED DOCTOR LOSES IN COURT

Jury Finds for Husband Who Feathered Wife's "Friend."

SPRINGVILLE, La., March 13.—(AP)—Newton and Henry Starns, brothers, of Livingston parish, today won the first tilt in a maze of legal complications growing out of the tarring and feathering of Dr. Sedgwick L. Newsom, young dentist of Hammond, as a jury of unshaven farmers in the little remote courthouse here cleared them of damages of $60,000 asked by Dr. Newsom in civil action.

Gordon and Charles Starns, two others of the five brothers, were to be made defendants in the civil damage suit next week in its trial at Amite, in adjoining Tangipahoa parish, while the five are facing criminal charges of applying a caustic substance to the body of the dentist in Livingston parish, which case is to go to trial next June.

The jury returned their verdict in favor of the Starns brothers this afternoon denying monetary damages for the tarring and feathering of Dr. Newsom, who had sued them for $100,000.

The American Tobacco Company is estimated to have paid its president approximately $2,283,000, and his services thus rewarded were extraordinary, as viewed from the annual earnings' statement.

It was the Duke family who created

Salary of $2,283,000 Per Year Paid Head of Tobacco Company

Having carried on a heated debate on whether an executive is worth a million dollars a year, Wall Street suddenly finds that apparently it has one in its midst who received twice that amount in 1930.

The American Tobacco Company is estimated to have paid its president approximately $2,283,000, and his services thus rewarded were extraordinary, as viewed from the annual earnings' statement.

It was the Duke family who created the tobacco dynasty but it was Hill—George Washington Hill—who assumed a heritage left him by his father, and built the company to its present stature.

It is not in Who's Who, nor will you find an imposing list of connections after his name in the directory of directors, but he is Wall Street's two-million-dollar-a-year man—for 1930 at least.

Controversy Still Rages.

Nevertheless, the controversy over how big compensation should be for executives for extraordinary services rages. Starting with litigation over the bonus system adopted by Bethlehem Steel Corporation, which netted its president well over a million for 1929, a group of American Tobacco executives, headed by Richard Reid Rogers, has obtained through the supreme court of New York to inspect the company's books to learn details of its stock bonus plan.

The 1930 pay check of American

Tobacco's president, George Washington Hill, was only one-fifth of the country's cigarette production. In the five years of his administration the company's business has virtually doubled, and, in addition, the manufacture of stock to employees, approved by the directors last year, put 12,440 shares into this strong box at the low price

Romance of New York Society Girl and Cowboy Strikes Reef

RENO, Nev., March 13.—(AP)—The romance of a New York society girl and a Colorado cowboy has led to Reno.

Barbara Monell Glaze, 26, was here today with her husband, Fred Monell, of Colorado Springs, to inspect the books of the International Nickel Company, which left Reno yesterday.

The romance was born of business. Miss Monell, pretty horsewoman and sports enthusiast, was here to inspect the books of the International Nickel Company, which left Reno yesterday.

They were married five weeks later in Grace and St. Stephens Episcopal church there. There was no honeymoon. Soon they went to live on a cattle ranch near South Park, Colo.

Glaze's old "stamping ground." They had a happy life there, but Glaze's husband liked the city. They moved to Colorado Springs, seeking a muzzie for a dog. Glaze welcomed her custom.

"It's a matter I just can't discuss right now," said Roy W. Stoddard, her attorney.

Miss Monell's plunge into matrimony startled society circles just as she was married February 21, 1928.

The daughter and heiress of Amos Glaze, 80-year-old rodeo maker to whom she was married February 21, 1928.

The couple had been separated for a year, but Glaze's husband had not yet returned to the west.

"It's a matter I just can't discuss right now," said Roy W. Stoddard, her attorney.

Miss Monell's plunge into matrimony startled society circles just as she was married February 21, 1928.

The couple had been separated for a year, but Glaze's husband had not yet returned to the west.

"It's a matter I just can't discuss right now," said Roy W. Stoddard, her attorney.

Miss Monell's plunge into matrimony startled society circles just as she was married February 21, 1928.

The couple had been separated for a year, but Glaze's husband had not yet returned to the west.

"It's a matter I just can't discuss right now," said Roy W. Stoddard, her attorney.

Miss Monell's plunge into matrimony startled society circles just as she was married February 21, 1928.

The couple had been separated for a year, but Glaze's husband had not yet returned to the west.

"It's a matter I just can't discuss right now," said Roy W. Stoddard, her attorney.

Miss Monell's plunge into matrimony startled society circles just as she was married February 21, 1928.

The couple had been separated for a year, but Glaze's husband had not yet returned to the west.

"It's a matter I just can't discuss right now," said Roy W. Stoddard, her attorney.

Miss Monell's plunge into matrimony startled society circles just as she was married February 21, 1928.

The couple had been separated for a year, but Glaze's husband had not yet returned to the west.

"It's a matter I just can't discuss right now," said Roy W. Stoddard, her attorney.

Miss Monell's plunge into matrimony startled society circles just as she was married February 21, 1928.

The couple had been separated for a year,

Dry Issue To Be Sole Basis Of W.C.T.U. Election Support

Organization Will Back Dry Candidates Irrespective of Other Principles, Says Georgia Leader.

MACON, Ga., March 13.—(AP)—

Members of the Sixth District Women's Christian Temperance Union, meeting here Friday, adopted resolutions entreating representatives of the district and the state's two senators to declare themselves publicly as opposed to the state control plan of prohibition enforcement advocated by

John J. Rainey, chairman of the Democratic national committee.

In the forthcoming presidential election, as in past elections, the W.

C. T. U. as a unit will oppose wet candidates and support dry candidates, irrespective of party or other principles, according to Mrs. Marvin

Walters, W.C.T.U. chairman.

"We will fight Franklin Roosevelt, the outstanding prospective candidate of the democratic party," Mrs. Williams said after the meeting.

"Roosevelt can be thought of only in terms of wetness. He will get the vote of the W. C. T. U. only if the conditions are right."

"All parties are represented in the organization. There is no particular news in our opposition to Roosevelt;

it simply happens that he is wet."

Two Grinnell Battlegrounds, Foy, Zebulon, Jackson and other cities of the district, and visitors from Fort

Valley, Milledgeville, Gray, Eastman and Cochran attended a session in the afternoon. Mrs. A. W. Voight, of Macon, district president, presided at the meeting session and Mrs. Williams at the luncheon.

Resolution Adopted.

The resolution, adopted in the morning, follows:

"Realizing that the recent proposal of the chairman of the democratic national committee to ignore the eighteenth amendment will unlikely make any prohibition an issue in the next national election unless southern drys speak boldly of their opposition, we, the democratic women of the sixth congressional district of Georgia, hereby resolution, protest

our congressmen and the two United States senators to declare themselves publicly as opposed to the state control plan and thus lend their powerful influence in the state to secure a dry delegation from Georgia to the next national democratic convention."

Macon Ministers Speak.

Several Macon ministers spoke at the luncheon. Dr. Charles E. Burts, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Dr. H. M. Ruby, pastor of the Methodist church, both spoke in favor of the 18th amendment.

Mr. Walter Anthony, of Macon, told of liquor drinking she observed in London, Paris, Italy and Egypt on a trip abroad.

Drinking among women in London is

"deadly," and said she has seen women leave their baby carriages on the sidewalk while they went to the bars to drink and then "stagger back to their baby carriages."

Mrs. N. M. Peterson, Atlanta, who gave her $45,000 home to the

W. C. T. U. and who is president of the Druid Hills union, in Atlanta, and Mrs. O. L. Taylor, Atlanta, fifth district president, were among the speakers. Mrs. F. Klein, Cincinnati, Ohio, commented the temperance work of southern women. There were several other speakers.

Tentative plans were made for the observance of Temperance Day in the public schools March 27 and of Temperance Day in the Georgia schools March 22. The Georgia legislature in 1922 set aside the fourth

Friday in March as Temperance Day in the schools, declaring that two hours should be given to a discussion of temperance and prohibition.

Seeks Bus Permit.

WAYCROSS, Ga., March 13.—

J. Walter Bennett, of Crawfordston, has applied to the Florida railroad commission for permit to operate a freight bus from Waycross to Jacksonville and other Florida points.

OKEFENOKEE SWAMP INSPECTION ENDS

Negro Juvenile Inmates Burn Way to Freedom

MACON, Ga., March 13.—(AP)—The negro inmates of the juvenile detention home burned their way to liberty early Friday morning and opened the way for the escape of a score of others, but they refused to leave.

Two negroes, James Friar, J. G. Rhines and James Grant, were still at liberty Friday night.

Instead of iron bars at the windows of the negro dormitory wooden slats had been used. The negroes burned the slats in two.

SOUTH GEORGIA MAN JAILED FOR MURDER

SHELLMAN, GA., March 13.—(AP)

Circumstances of the slaying of W. A. Gilder, farmer, at the home of S. R. Watts near here, puzzled authorities today, while Watts, held in jail on a murder charge, refused to discuss the case.

Sheriff Walter Taylor, of Randolph county, said in Cuthbert, the county seat, where Watts is held, that the armed man admitted the killing and "intimated he would plead self-defense." Beyond this, Taylor said,

Watts, a tenant farmer, would not discuss the shooting. The sheriff said

Watts was under the influence of liquor at the time of his arrest at his farm home near here last night, but he was not drunk.

In Cuthbert, Sheriff Taylor said

Watts apparently was in jail under the hold him, but responded readily to their call and offered no resistance.

Watts and his wife were no children.

Chief Lanier said.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Sam Gilder, a brother of W. A.

Gilder, lives near here.

Today's RADIO PROGRAMS

On Atlanta's Locals

336.9 WGST 890
Meters Kilocycles
Studios Ansley Hotel

8:00 A. M.—Sounding for Everyone, CBS.
8:15—Capitol Mail, CBS.
8:45—Morning Moods, CBS.
9:00—Columbia Mail Trio with Virginia Ar-bore, CBS.
9:25—Biltmore Packing Company.
9:30—New World Salon orchestra, CBS.
10:15—Adventures of Helen and Mary, CBS.
10:30—Sign off.
11:00—Atlanta Symphony Artists' Recital, CBS.
11:15—National Democratic Club, Forum
12:00—The Four Clubmen, CBS.
2:30—Saturday Symphonies, CBS.
3:00—Harvard and University of Chicago Debate, Anderson Plan in Wickersham Report, CBS.
4:00—Leon Belasco and orchestra, CBS.
4:30—Katherine Cornell, CBS.
5:00—Sign off.
5:30—Armand Seeger and orchestra, CBS.
6:00—Bingo, CBS.
7:15—Bert Alley, tenor, Ann Leaf at the organ, CBS.
7:30—The Dixie Coffee Company.
7:45—Hawaiian Moon Players.
8:00—Around the Samovar, CBS.
8:45—Checo-Yeast, Inc., CBS.
9:00—Hank Simmons' Show, CBS.
10:15—The Atlanta Constitution's late night news broadcast.
10:30—Guy Lombardo and orchestra, CBS.
11:00—Sign off.
11:45—Biltmoreons.

A debate between students of Harvard and the University of Chicago will be broadcast over WGST and the Columbia network from 3 to 4 p. m. today.

Three Columbia stations will contribute to the broadcast which, because of the frequent changes in point of dissemination, promises to be one of the most ambitious technical undertakings in radio's history.

The Chicago debating team will speak into a microphone in the studios of WBBM, Chicago; the Harvard team will talk from WNAC, Boston, and the judges will give their decision from Station WABC, New York.

In view of the approaching St.
Patrick's Day, Hank Simmons has arranged to present aboard his show boat, The Maybelle, Dion Boucicault's vivid Irish drama, "Arrah No Pogue," which will be heard over WGST-Columbia network. The curtain will open at 8 o'clock and will rise at 9 o'clock. The play, long a favorite with Irish comedians, is one of Boucicault's outstanding works, others being "Colleen Bawn," "The Octoroon" and "Rip Van Winkle." Hank Simmons and Jane McGrew will be heard in the leading roles, supported by a cast including Joe Carroll,

405.2 WSB 740
Meters Kilocycles
Studios Biltmore Hotel

6:45 A. M.—Headlines.
7:15—Cheerio Express.
7:15—Harry Cooper's Keyboard Capers.
8:15—Glen Glenn, Quaker Early Birds, NBC.
9:30—Dinner, NBC.
9:45—A. & P., "Your Daily Food," NBC.
10:15—Dance Miniatures, NBC.
11:00—Astrologers, NBC.
11:15—State Bureau of Markets,
Farm and Home Hour, NBC.
1:30—Markets.
2:00—Mildred Evans.
2:30—Katherine Cornell, CBS.
3:00—Better English.
3:15—The Feature, NBC.
4:00—Theater, NBC.
4:20—Whale Restaurant Orchestra, NBC.
4:45—The Testimoneers, NBC.
5:00—Theater, NBC.
5:15—Dr. Marion McH. Hull.
5:45—Uncle Abe and David, NBC.
6:00—Theater, NBC.
6:30—Associated Press, NBC.
7:00—Aviation Interests.
7:30—Variety, NBC.
7:45—Navy Feature.
8:00—General Electric Hour, NBC.
8:15—Theater, NBC.
9:00—Amos 'n' Andy, NBC.
10:15—Tin-type Jesters.
11:00—Kodak Hour, NBC.
11:30—Lloyd Huntley, Patina Peacheze.
11:45—Biltmoreons.

Tune in Before You Turn In!

Over WGST at 10:15 each night The Constitution gives you the latest nightly news broadcast.

You will also find in The Constitution's Radio Page
all the leading programs complete.

Tune In Before You Turn In!

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie
Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Wittim Schuyler, Maybelle, Lettie

Manhattan Night

By William Almon Wolff

INSTALLMENT XXXII.

"Thought you'd pulled a fast one, one, didn't you, huh?" Thought you'd go away with me—because they close and the D. A. acted like they was swallowin' the line you was handin' out?"

Peter caught his breath, sharply. "I don't know what you mean, sergeant," said Ross. His voice was steady enough. But his eyes were wandering about the room; he couldn't face that unknitting, hypnotic stare of Charley's.

"The hell you don't! I'm wise, fella—I'm wise!" His hand went with a sudden movement, to his pocket; he drew out the automatic pistol he had found in the penthouse. "Ever see this before?"

"'Noo!"

"That's what you say. Suppose I told you it had had your finger prints all over it?"

Peter said, "I was damned lie!" Peter was puzzled. Ross was regaining his confidence.

"You would, would you? All right. Leave that lay—for now. Where was you Tuesday night—Wednesday mornin' 2:30, when you left Sanborn's, and 3:20, when you got there?"

"I've already told Inspector Connolly."

"Hey, fella—I don't care what you told who! I'm askin' you—see? Come clean! Where was you?"

"I—I was with a lady—" He looked at Peter apologetically. "With—a Miss Gould."

"Yeah? Well—I'll say that's a damned lie!"

"Yes? Well, as the lady was in fact, already told Inspector Connolly and Mr. Barchay that was—"

"The time you made me—" said Charley, his manner altered for the moment, "is the way the women fall for inchworms like you! Oh, sure she backed you up! I know that, fella."

Menace came back into his voice.

"Only—she was lyin', too." He was with Ross. Ross' jaw was just out, so that his hot breath must have brushed the other's face. "Get me, Ross—I know where she was—and it wasn't with you! And I know where you was, too!"

"Then why the devil are you asking me?"

But then he was bravo, and Peter knew it. Panic had taken hold of Ross again; it was plain in his shifting eyes, in the trembling of his weak, bad mouth, in the way his fingers played together. He was in the grip of a deadly fear, and his right sickened Peter. It would be almost bad for Martha if Ross had killed Tack as if she herself had fired the shot.

"I'm giving you your last chance to come clean—that's why," said Charley.

Something about Charley's manner puzzled Peter now. He had it was almost like voice was gentler; it was almost like voice was gentler; Peter felt the he had supposed; even his swiftly growing liking and respect for the man, in the last two days, hadn't prepared him to see Charley playing like this in the fears and hopes of one like Ross.

"You're a poor sort of man, Ross. I'll say you are! But, God Almighty, you must have some guts! You know the whole frame—you've known it for a day and a night at least!" Once more his voice was full of unmeasurable contempt. "Oh, I know you didn't shoot Thayer—I know you didn't even know he was going to be put out!"

Peter jumped. His heart leaped in his relief—for he didn't even for an instant, doubt that Charley meant that, nor, now, that Charley, in every truth had solved the mystery. Fascinated, he stood at Ross. He was as much afraid as ever that word of reassurance that Charley had tossed him hadn't relaxed the grip of the terror in which he was enmeshed.

"Let me alone—" he said. The roar of his mouth was dry; he talked as if his tongue were swollen. "I—I have nothing to say—I've told all I know."

"Yeah?" said Charley. "That's your last word, is it? Remember, fella—I'm givin' you your last chance. You ain't headed for the chair—not this time. But they's other crimes besides murder. You know some guys up for them. Yeah—say, like I—"

"Shut up! Get out! I don't know what you're talking about—"

"You know, all right, fella—you

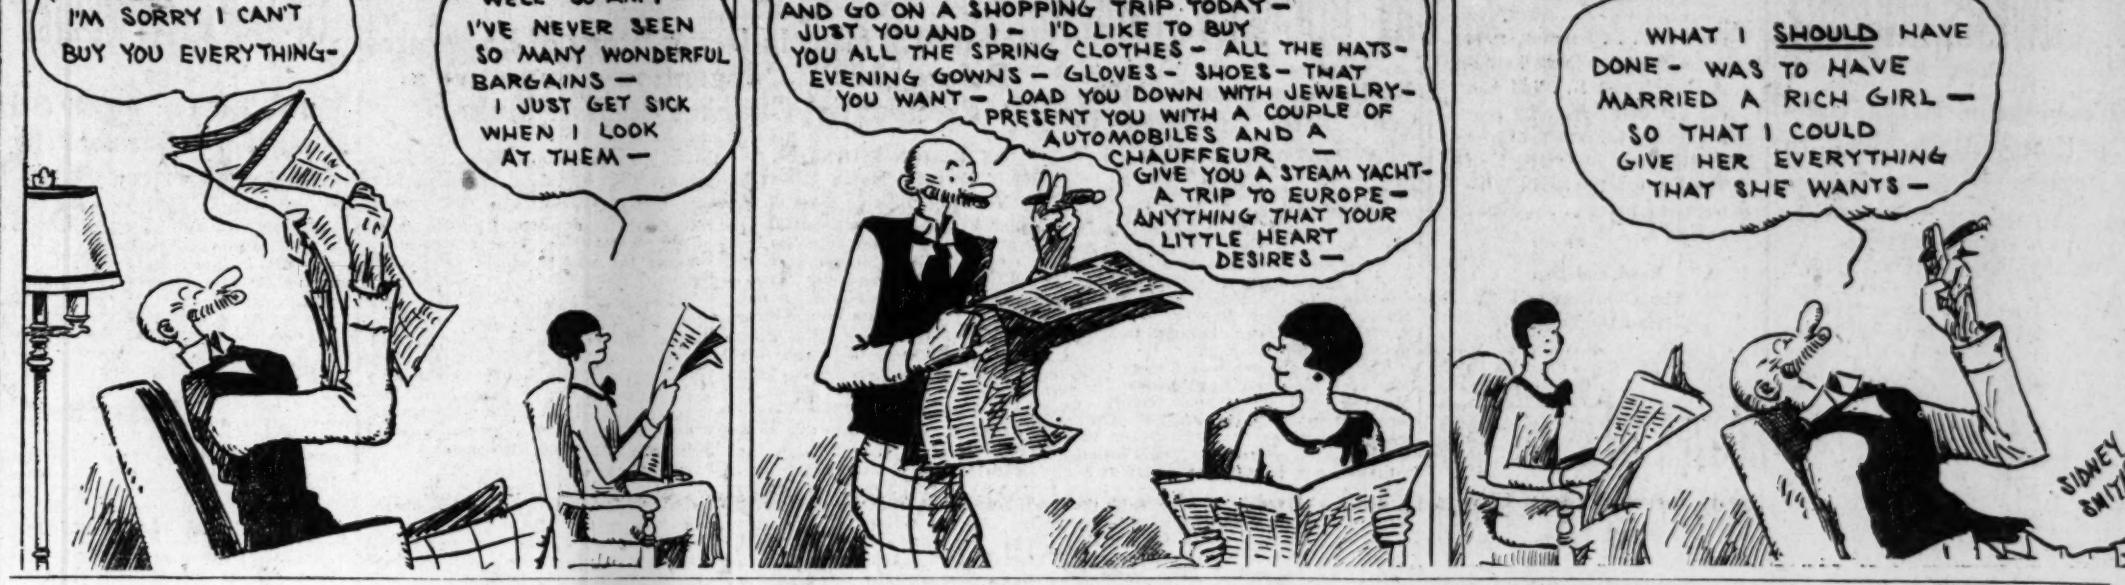

(Copyright, 1931, for The Constitution.)

Continued Monday.

Today's Cross-Word Puzzle

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle.

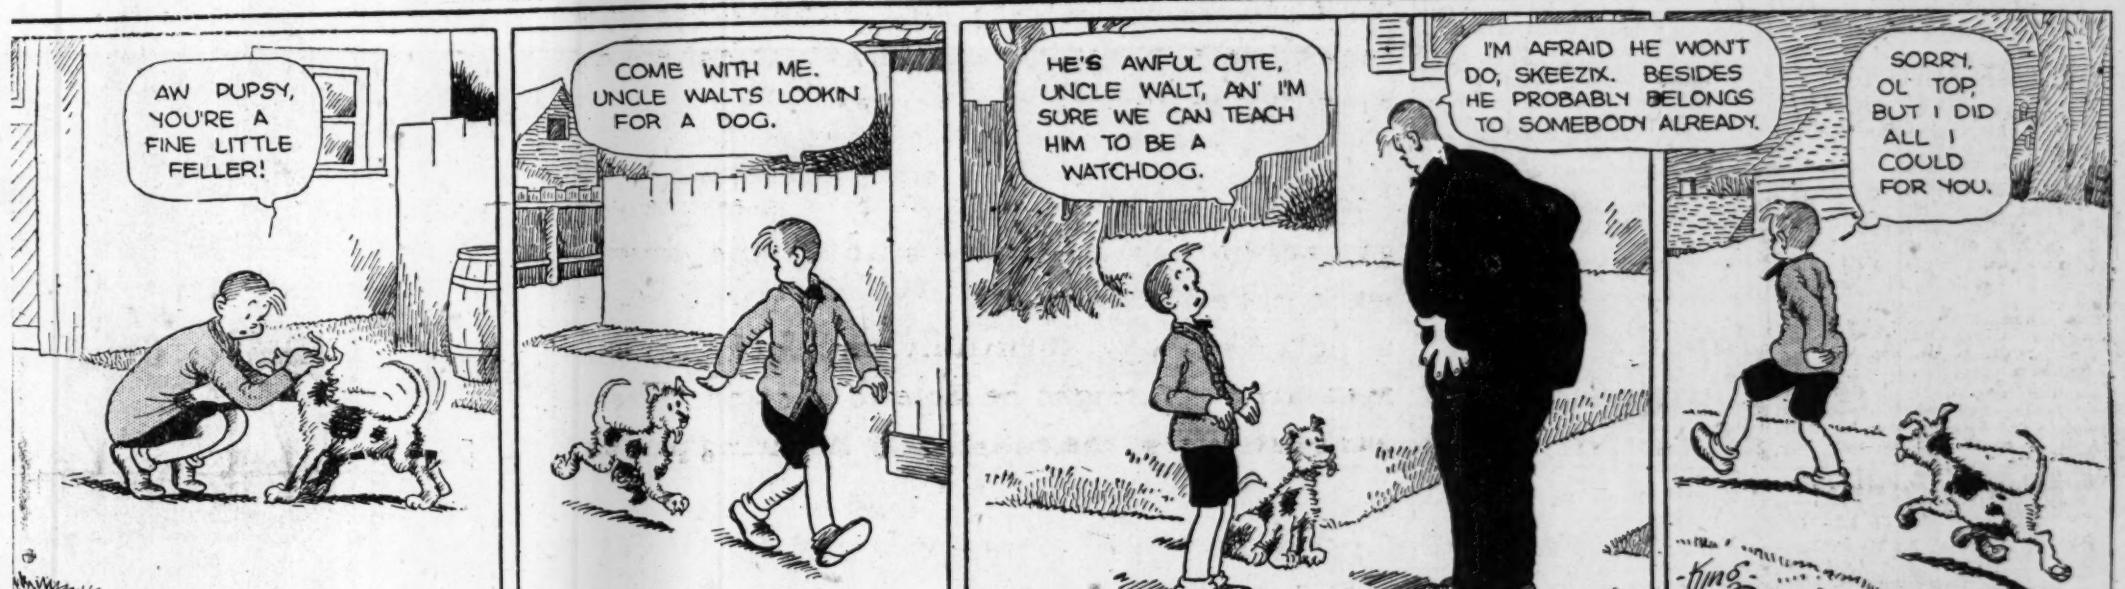

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14		15							16
17		18							19
20		21							22
23	24	25
27	28	29							30
34			35	36					37
38			39						40
41			42						43
44			45						46
51	52	53							54
59			60						61
62			63						64
65			66						67

MOON MULLINS—UNCLE WILLIE HAS A LAUGH ON MAMIE NOW.

MOON MULLINS—UNCLE WILLIE HAS A LAUGH ON MAMIE NOW.

GASOLINE ALLEY—WALT IS HARD TO PLEASE.

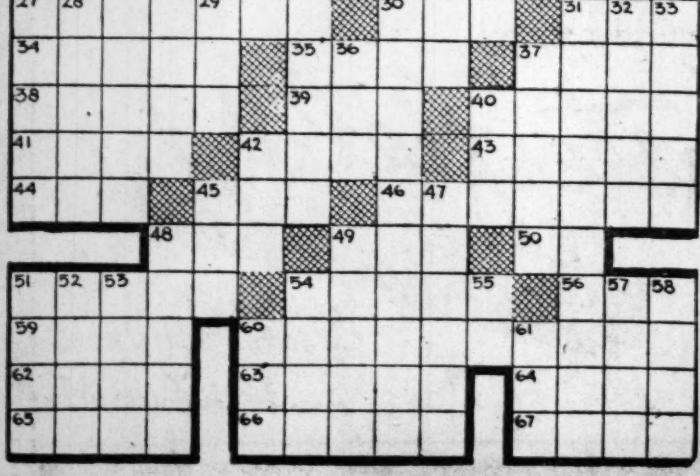

Aunt Het

SMITTY—MISERY LOVES COMPANY.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Riches in Prospect

Delta Sigma Phi Plan Series Of Parties for College Guests

Alpha Gamma chapter of the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity of Georgia Tech has issued invitations to a series of social activities to be held over the week-end of March 21 and 22, complimenting guests from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn.; the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn.; the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, Ala.; the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Ala., and the University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida.

On Saturday afternoon, March 21, from 5 to 7 o'clock the chapter will entertain with a dance at Garber Hall. Invitations have been issued to a group of the college sets. Immediately following the dance the members of the chapter will entertain the guests at a buffet supper at the chapter house, 763 Williams street, N. W.

Sunday morning the visitors will visit the Alpha Nu chapter of Delta Sigma Phi at Oglethorpe University. Sunday afternoon the Tech chapter will hold open house from 3 to 6 o'clock.

The chaperones are Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Brittain, Dean and Mrs. W. Vernon Skiles, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Boykin, Mr. and Mrs. J. McNair Cooper, Mr. and Mr. C. E. Cooleidge, Mr. and Mrs. W. Blanton, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Cooleidge, Mr. and Mrs. James Stanley Moore, Mrs. Edwin W. Robinson, Mrs. Marion Moore, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Memminger, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Yundt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hulifield, Mr. and Mrs. John Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. John T. H. Williams.

Among the young ladies invited to the dance are Misses Florie Adkins, Constance Adams, Catherine Brooks, Helen Carr, Lula Corker, Rena Candler, Eugenia Candler, Frances Clarke, Virginia Dillon, Peggy Fuller, Adelaide Fleming, Doris Fulton, Nell Gilpin, Martha Gandy, Fannie Jackson, Alice Jenkins, Catherine Jetton, Judy King, Nancy Kamper, Susanne Memminger, Jane Morrow, Claire Ivey, Jane McMillan, Charlotte McCrae, Peggy Rector, Peggy Poindexter, Corrine Randolph, Peggy Smith, LaTrell Robertson, Mary Wyatt Scott, Virginia Sims, Petey Spalding, Shirley Spalding, Thayer, Ethel Whittemore, Mary Semour Ward, Jeanne Ward, Eleanor Williams, Frances Weinman, Emily Walker, Ruth Wight, Marion Yundt, Lucy Yundt, Peggy White, Elizabeth Woolford, Nell Brown, Elizabeth Baird, Evelyn Rogers, Ethel Kunkel, Frances Lamb, Margaret Cummings, Margaret Montgomery, Mary Vorus, Hazel Turner, Helen Parker, Hannah Sterne, Virginia Gaines, Frances Adams, Betty Cobb, Datus Wilson, Martha Tower, Mary Martin, Clyde Lovejoy, Catherine

News of Society In Brookhaven

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Ivy and daughter, Martha, visited Mrs. A. G. Ivy and family at Norcross recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gordon of Norcross, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Langford, on Thornwell drive.

Miss Gladys Smith and Miss Ollie Compton, of Cumming, Ga., were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith, on Oglethorpe avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Johnson and Miss Bonnie Johnson, of Flowery Branch, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Gaines.

The 4-H Club enjoyed a weiner roast Friday evening.

Officers of the 4-H Club girls attended the council meeting held at Decatur Saturday. Those attending were Misses Elizabeth Hambrick, Mildred Hambrick, Elizabeth Layton, Frances Sills, Claudine Stewart, Dorothy Poyan and Mrs. R. J. Wornack.

Miss E. E. Elton, entered with a weiner roast Saturday evening at her home on University drive. Fourteen guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Vansant, Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Vansant, of Hapeville, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Dodson Sunday.

Frank Lee is ill at her home on Hillcrest avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce and Mrs. E. F. Pierce motored to Cornelia, Ga., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wehnt and Miss Violet Wehnt spent the weekend in Gadsden, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Frost.

Mrs. G. A. Greer, of Austin, Texas, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Greer, on Candler road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wornack, of Rocky Ford, are visiting their children, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wornack and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Chaffin and daughter, Dorothy, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chaffin, in Cartersville Sunday.

Mrs. E. E. Tillman entertained the Matrons' Club Friday afternoon at her home on Candler road.

Mrs. George J. Rowe and daughter, Sara, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Turner.

Mrs. W. C. Turner is ill at her home on Matthews street.

Mrs. W. J. League, of Tucker, spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. G. L. Smith, on Oglethorpe avenue.

W. M. S. of the Baptist church enjoyed a quiet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Echols, on University drive.

Miss Tabitha Jailet, of Atlanta, visited her sister, Mrs. W. C. Turner, recently.

Winnetrope Alumnae.

The 25th anniversary of the Winnetrope Alumnae was held at the home of Mrs. James Sartor on Highland drive, Wednesday afternoon.

A musical program was the feature of the afternoon's program. Mrs. Alton Irby gave an interesting talk on "Southern Music." Mrs. R. J. Rutherford rendered a group of piano selections. Mrs. Sartor's daughter, Miss Williette Sartor, gave a piano solo. After the business meeting and program tea was served.

Emory University News

Misses Mary Jackson, Clara Jackson, Christine Glausier and Lois McDowell, Misses, were dinner guests of the Pi K. A. fraternity Sunday.

Miss Mary Helen Forrest, in visiting her grandmother in Memphis, Tennessee.

Ed Stephens, Steve Worthy and Sam Laird spent Sunday in Macon.

The A. T. O. fraternity entertained at a reception at its home on Ridgewood drive Wednesday evening. The chaperones were Mrs. Preston Arkwright, Mrs. J. L. Sutton and Mrs. R. L. Jessup.

Fred Barnett attended a mission conference in Newberry, S. C.

The third little commencement of Emory University will be held March 29 through the 23d. A number of interesting social affairs will be given at that time.

Professor and Mrs. Raymond Pate motored to Rome Sunday.

Mrs. Augustine Sane is entertaining at a series of bridge-teas at her home on North Decatur road.

Mr., Mrs. Robert Hosts at Supper

An important social event of last evening was the buffet supper at which Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Robert entertained at their home on Fifteenth street. The honor guests of the occasion were Senator F. C. Wolcott, of Connecticut; Senator Key Pittman, of Tennessee; Senator Morris Legander, of New Orleans, La.

Assisting in receiving was Mrs. John H. Hester, sister of Mrs. Robert. Fifty friends of the hosts were invited.

Brumby—Williams.

Miss Gertrude E. Brumby and Dr. B. F. Williams were married at the Druid Hills Baptist church Monday, March 9. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Louis Newton, pastor, in the presence of friends and relatives. Mrs. Williams is the daughter of Mrs. T. Hatfield, and has many friends here and in Chattanooga, Tenn. Dr. Williams is a popular physician and Boulevard Club.

Resolutions pledging assistance to the unemployed and to co-operate with Mayor James L. Key and the Atlanta Interfraternity Association in the "paint up-clean up" campaign were adopted by the Boulevard Park Woman's Club at its meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Lee F. Dreyfus, 559 Elmwood drive, N. E., with the president, Mrs. George W. Tumlin, presiding. Reports were given by chairmen of committees.

The benefit bridge-tea sponsored recently by the club with Mrs. Clara Donaldson as chairman, at Davison-Paxon tea room, proved to be profitable, and an announcement was made that part of the proceeds will be given to Tallulah Falls school. Mrs. Lee F. Dreyfus, chairman of sanitation and beautification, urged residents of Boulevard to keep the streets free from rubbish and leaves. Mrs. H. T. Cox gave an interesting talk on the work of the Associated Workers of the Blind.

surgeon of Atlanta. Dr. and Mrs. Williams are at home at 59 Park circle, N. E.

Fraternity Dance Given at East Lake

Alpha Nu chapter of Theta Chi fraternity of Georgia Tech entertained last evening with a formal dance at East Lake Country Club. Chaperones were Miss Bessie Lambert, Mrs. A. L. McCoy, Dean and Mrs. W. Vernon Skiles, Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Mather and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bennett. Members of the fraternity are: George K. Anning, J. W. Austin, Jr., M. G. Crum, R. M. Dickey, L. C. Culver, W. H. Dunbar, M. E. Dunlap, W. W. Finch, H. L. Maddux, H. A. List, D. W. McArthur, W. C. Miller, A. M. Myers, J. A. Kennard, A. C. Petty, M. L. Shahan, J. A. Smith, H. B. Schenck, W. E. Walker, R. M. W. W. G. Woodward. Pledges are Hudson, Dick, William Gardner, Frank Dunbar, E. O. Gatlin, Raymond McCallie, E. B. Powell and P. G. Smith.

Rich's Great Selection of

EASTER COATS

answers

The Season's Latest Cry for Individuality

Skipper blue—patent flower—new self-fabric, crushed belt!

$29.50

A self-trimmed or a fur-trimmed coat? A pebbly wool or a spongy wool? A cloth or a silk coat? We have them all! So varied a collection that you can find just the coat that expresses YOU. What fun to fit yourself to your coat, especially when YOUR coat fits YOUR pocketbook and the latest fashion dictates at the same time! Our prices are as varied as our styles—but in every case surprisingly low.

Skipper blue—exquisite ermine jabot that can be worn as a scarf collar.

$58

$49.50

Dress-like effects!
Fitted hip lines!
Scarfs that make
cowl necks!
Jaunty, flaring
cuffs!
Collarless necklines!

$25

THE COAT SHOP
—RICH'S, THIRD FLOOR

RICH'S

Happy are we in our desire and ability to serve you, confident that everything you buy in our store will return to you a full measure of service and satisfaction in price, quality, and durability.

RICH'S—AT YOUR SERVICE WITH A HAPPY, CONFIDENT WORKING FORCE

RICH'S, Inc.

Walter H. Rich
PRESIDENT

ERWIN-WARE WEDDING IS FASHIONABLE EVENT TODAY

Service To Be Solemnized At North Avenue Church

Social importance is attached to the marriage service of Miss Runa Erwin and Fred Anderson Ware, of Atlanta, formerly of Charlotte and King's Mountain, N. C., which will be solemnized at a beautiful and impressive high noon service at the North Avenue Presbyterian church today in the presence of a fashionable assemblage of relatives and friends and out-of-town guests. The attractive bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father, Howell Cobb Erwin, Jr., and her only attendant will be Mrs. Halstead Anderson, of Greenville, S. C., formerly Miss Sophie Street, a lifelong friend of Miss Erwin's. Edmund M. Kirsch, of Sydney, Australia, and New Zealand, formerly of Charlotte, N. C., and Atlanta, will act as best man to the bridegroom-to-be and the ushers include Spencer Bell, of Charlotte, N. C.; Dr. Reid T. Garrett, V. W. McKinney and Lonnie Lyda. Preceding the ceremony, and during the taking of the nuptial vows, a program of appropriate music will be rendered on the organ by Miss Emily Parmarkee, well-known musician and organist of the church. The ceremony will be performed by Dr. Homer McMillan, a lifelong friend of the bride-elect, and he will be assisted in the service by Dr. Richard Orme, pastor of the church. Following the ceremony Mr. Ware and his bride will leave for a motor trip to points of interest in Florida, including Jacksonville, Palm Beach, Miami and Tampa. Upon their return they will take possession of their apartment in the Salisbury Manor, at 2200 Peachtree road.

Rehearsal Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell Cobb Erwin entertained at a buffet supper last evening at their home on Park lane, honoring their daughter and her fiance, following the rehearsal for the wedding, which was held at North Avenue Presbyterian church.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Erwin in entertaining was Mrs. Halstead Anderson, of Greenville, S. C.

The guests included Mrs. E. L. Ware and Miss Frances Ware, of Charlotte, N. C., brother and sister of the bridegroom-elect; Spencer Bell, of Charlotte; Mrs. A. L. Wilson and Mrs. Richard Shaw, of Quincy, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Reed P. Garrett, Miss Austin Kelley, of Birmingham; Lonnie Lyde, W. W. McKinney, Cliff Houser, Al Maple, of Birmingham; Percy Brown, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Halstead Anderson, of Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund M. Kirsch, of Sydney, Australia.

Avondale Estates News of Interest

Mrs. Lee Potter was hostess Thursday evening at a bridge party. Guests included 16 of her Avondale friends.

Thursday, Mrs. Thurston Hatchett entertained at a luncheon at East Lake Country Club, honoring Mrs. Mis. Ethelinda North, a bride-elect.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitehead will entertain at a bridge party this evening at their home on West End in honor of Miss Elsa Myers and Arthur Lewis McCash, whose marriage will be solemnized soon.

Miss Thelma Vickers will entertain at a bridge-tea at 2 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. P. Vickers, on Juniper street.

Mrs. Ralph Allison entertains at a bridge party at her home on St. Charles avenue, honoring Miss Fay Templeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bewick will entertain at a buffet supper followed by bridge this evening at their home on Peachtree road.

Mr. Guy Carmichael will entertain at a bridge-tea, honoring Miss Ethelinda North, a bride-elect.

Miss Jean Harris Johnson will entertain at a bridge-tea at the home of her mother, Mrs. Dan W. Johnson, Jr., on Oakdale road, honoring the members of the Beta Chi Sorority this afternoon.

Sophomore class of Woodberry Hall will entertain the senior class at a bridge-luncheon at the Henry Grady hotel at 1:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Kilgore will entertain this evening in honor of Miss Ethelinda North and Mrs. Roberts.

Mrs. Binnion N. Jordan will entertain at tea at her home on Clifton road for the Fidelis class of Druid Hills Baptist church, honoring Mrs. J. Chalmers Buchanan.

Mrs. W. Hugo McWhorter will entertain at a steak supper this evening at her home on Sycamore drive in Decatur, celebrating the birthday of her son, Hugh McWhorter, III.

Atlanta Chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta sponsors a benefit bridge at the Biltmore at 2 o'clock.

Blackfriars Dramatic Club of Agnes Scott College will offer a play production this evening at 8:30.

German-American Club will give a benefit supper at the Deutsches Haus this evening at 7 o'clock.

Ladies of Pattillo Memorial M. E. Ladies will sponsor a Memorial Day tea at the church, corner Field and College avenues, this evening at 5:30 o'clock.

Woman's Auxiliary to Local No. 32, National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, will sponsor a St. Patrick's Day dance this evening at the West End Woman's Club.

Daice at the Baltimore hotel for members of the younger set.

Auxiliary Tea. Women's Auxiliary of the Railroad Mail Service Association entertained at tea in a private dining room of Davison-Paxon's restaurant Thursday. Those present were: Mesdames A. P. Roberts, F. E. Hopper, H. H. Gill, W. A. Acker, H. H. Jenkins, H. R. Gill, W. B. Ellington, Tyre Watson, Denny Price, R. S. McNeil, B. W. Denning, F. J. Liley, S. M. Griffin, E. B. Goodwin, Ira McDonald, H. Y. Hutchesson, C. L. McCormick, W. A. L. F. Nelson, J. F. King, J. H. McMillie, J. D. Gilmer, E. B. Townsend, L. M. Terrell, T. J. Terrell, H. R. Johnson, G. W. Harlan and W. A. Innland.

Mrs. Plough's Glee Club. Mrs. Plough's S. A. K. Club entertained last evening at a reception at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue, honoring the members of the glee club of the Woman's College of Alabama, who presented a program last evening under the auspices of the Emory University Glee Club in Dr. Hill's auditorium. The reception followed the concert, and among the hostesses in entertaining were the members of the Emory University Glee Club and the Little Symphony orchestra. Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Dewey and the officers of the Agnes Scott Glee Club were guests of honor.

Plough's FAVORITE BOUQUET FACE POWDER. If you want a heavier texture powder, choose Plough's Favorite Face Powder, the red oval box, 50c. For oily skin choose Plough's Incense of Flowers in the red oval box, 75c.

IT CLINGS and CLINGS YET IT ONLY COSTS 25c Don't pay a premium for foolish frills. Choose Plough's Favorite Bouquet, an economical, high quality powder that will cling to your skin and make your complexion radiant with youthful freshness and charm. Look for the square shape red box with the name Plough on it, the largest selling face powder in the world for 25c.

Plough's FAVORITE BOUQUET FACE POWDER. If you want a heavier texture powder, choose Plough's Favorite Face Powder, the red oval box, 50c. For oily skin choose Plough's Incense of Flowers in the red oval box, 75c.

Big Business And Investments Attract Women

The well rounded program of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women, which organization has been observing national business women's week, includes not only finer health standards and a greater degree of intellectual growth, but a sounder and saner appraisal of women's potentialities and handicaps—a serene and collected approach to business problems and business economics.

To enable the mature business woman better to cope with her problems, the federation has carried on an extensive program of research, the results of which are to appear in three printed volumes, furnishing the business woman with an accurate gauge of the field which offers her greatest opportunities for development and financial remuneration. Likewise, this report should furnish food for thought regarding fields which are overrun, and which help to create an economic situation not a healthy one.

It is notable that women are more and more becoming prominent in the business world, more capable not only of holding positions of responsibility, but capable of thrift and saving; of making their own investments. This they have been doing with a will for a great number of years, according to Mrs. E. L. Edwards, who is indicating that women and "big business" are rapidly becoming well acquainted. Financial experts estimate that women do about 80 per cent of the purchasing and have half the industrial wealth of the world. The following are some of the indications of what they do: In 1929, women owned 51 per cent of the stock of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company; men own 39 per cent. Women own 52 per cent of the stock of Westinghouse Electric; men 41 per cent; of Pullman stock women own 46 per cent; of National Biscuit 50 per cent; of General Electric 47 per cent; American Sugar 47 per cent; Pennsylvania railroad 50 per cent; Norfolk Western 48 per cent; Southern Pacific 45 per cent.

Thrift, like everything else, evolved from a day of indolence when women made their own tailoring, carpets and at the present time women are co-owners of their electric service, and have their own savings accounts, stocks and bonds.

Mrs. Rebecca Shuman, one of Atlanta's chiefest business women, known for her astute business, contributes the following on thrift: "The need for systematic savings has been brought home to us more forcibly than ever before. To quote the sage of Northampton, 'The real standard of life is not one of quantity, but of quality.' Thrift is the habit of saving; building up a substantial reserve in cash. Prepare a financial cushion in case of financial tumbles. Don't fool yourself into thinking the 'tumble' will not come. They will. Marshall Field tells us that the four cardinal rules of success are: Thrift, Thrift, Thrift, Thrift. It is not what you earn, but what you save that counts."

Miss Thelma Vickers will entertain at a bridge-tea at 2 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. P. Vickers, on Juniper street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bewick will entertain at a bridge-tea, honoring Miss Ethelinda North, a bride-elect.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Kilgore will entertain this evening in honor of Miss Ethelinda North and Mrs. Roberts.

Mrs. Binnion N. Jordan will entertain at tea at her home on Clifton road for the Fidelis class of Druid Hills Baptist church, honoring Mrs. J. Chalmers Buchanan.

Mrs. W. Hugo McWhorter will entertain at a steak supper this evening at her home on Sycamore drive in Decatur, celebrating the birthday of her son, Hugh McWhorter, III.

Atlanta Chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta sponsors a benefit bridge at the Biltmore at 2 o'clock.

Blackfriars Dramatic Club of Agnes Scott College will offer a play production this evening at 8:30.

German-American Club will give a benefit supper at the Deutsches Haus this evening at 7 o'clock.

Ladies of Pattillo Memorial M. E. Ladies will sponsor a Memorial Day tea at the church, corner Field and College avenues, this evening at 5:30 o'clock.

Woman's Auxiliary to Local No. 32, National Federation of Postoffice Clerks, will sponsor a St. Patrick's Day dance this evening at the West End Woman's Club.

Daice at the Baltimore hotel for members of the younger set.

Auxiliary Tea. Women's Auxiliary of the Railroad Mail Service Association entertained at tea in a private dining room of Davison-Paxon's restaurant Thursday. Those present were: Mesdames A. P. Roberts, F. E. Hopper, H. H. Gill, W. A. Acker, H. H. Jenkins, H. R. Gill, W. B. Ellington, Tyre Watson, Denny Price, R. S. McNeil, B. W. Denning, F. J. Liley, S. M. Griffin, E. B. Goodwin, Ira McDonald, H. Y. Hutchesson, C. L. McCormick, W. A. L. F. Nelson, J. F. King, J. H. McMillie, J. D. Gilmer, E. B. Townsend, L. M. Terrell, T. J. Terrell, H. R. Johnson, G. W. Harlan and W. A. Innland.

Mrs. Plough's Glee Club. Mrs. Plough's S. A. K. Club entertained last evening at a reception at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue, honoring the members of the glee club of the Woman's College of Alabama, who presented a program last evening under the auspices of the Emory University Glee Club in Dr. Hill's auditorium.

The reception followed the concert, and among the hostesses in entertaining were the members of the Emory University Glee Club and the Little Symphony orchestra. Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm Dewey and the officers of the Agnes Scott Glee Club were guests of honor.

Attractive Birmingham Visitor and Hostess

Miss Smith and Her Guests To Be Feted at Party Series

A trio of lovely young school girls, residents of the Atlanta Biltmore Friday, March 27, honoring her guests, will be 150 members of the college set, many of whom will be at home for the holidays from the various schools and colleges throughout the country.

Miss Caroline Crumley will keep open house at her home on Inman circle, Saturday, March 28, in a complimentary gesture to Miss Smith and her guests. Mrs. Phinney Calhoun will entertain for these belles and for her daughter, Miss Marion Calhoun, who is also a student at the Ogontz school, and will arrive March 27 to spend the holidays with her parents.

Miss Smith will be hostess at a

Knights of Columbus Auxiliary Sponsors St. Patrick Celebration

Plans have been completed for an elaborate entertainment Tuesday evening, March 17, at the Atlanta Biltmore in celebration of St. Patrick's Day at 8 o'clock, sponsored by Knights of Columbus and the Ladies Auxiliary. A program of Irish songs will be rendered by Mrs. Ernest Trotti and William Maurer, accompanied by Vincent Hurley, Miss Lucile Bush, accompanied by Miss Virginia Morris, Agnes McGowen, Mary Frances Egart, Margaret Duffy, Rosetta Magill, Sarah Chappell, Miss Magill, Mrs. John McAlpin, Mrs. John Tischer, William McAlpin, Irwin Dicks, Gene Brisbane, Ben Taylor, Walter Weigand, Willie Farrell, Dan Sutter, Victer Corrigan, Norr Oswald, Philip Druff, Ed Murphy, Raymond Bloomfield, A. J. Daniels, Frank Gillespie, Dan McCall, Mr. and Mrs. F. McDermott, John Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William McAlpin, Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Kane, Mr. and Mrs. David Marx, Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sharpe, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McGowan, J. J. Haverty, Miss Haverty, Dr. and Mrs. Leo Daly, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baumstark, Mr. and Mrs. John McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Van Dusen, and Mrs. Charles Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Oberst, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Harrington, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Robak, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Giles, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tallman, Mrs. Mac Alpine, P. J. McDermott, Stephen Eble, A. Sullivan, J. J. and Mrs. Charles Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gavan, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Cline, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Thomas, Mrs. Mary A. McGarry, Miss Sallie Gillen, Miss Stella McFadden, Miss Mary McFadden, Mrs. Hagan, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Loehar, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Oatis, Mr. and Mrs. William Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Dan Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bell and also Mrs. Paul H. Bell.

Additional reservations can be made by telephoning Columbian Club, Hemlock 5568, at 1200 Peachtree street, not later than Sunday, March 15. Tickets are $2.50 per person, including the cost of the meal. Those who do not wish to attend the banquet may secure a dance invitation for $1 per couple through the house committee at the Columbian Club. Members of the council and the auxiliary are invited to bring their friends.

Circle Meeting.

Mrs. N. L. Wesley entertained the ladies of Circle No. 2 of the Women's Auxiliary of Covenant Presbyterian church Thursday morning at her home in Peachtree Hills. After the business session a social hour was spent in the parlor, and the auxiliary was dominant in the floral decorations. Mrs. Wesley was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Mrs. Sanford K. Bell and also Mrs. Paul H. Bell.

Circle Meeting.

Miss Margaret Turner entertained the members of the Sigma Delta Society of Washington Seminary Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Herman L. Turner, on Terrell Avenue. Miss Elizabeth Mitchell, president of the sorority, presided during the business session a social hour was spent in the parlor, and the auxiliary was dominant in the floral decorations. Mrs. Wesley was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Mrs. Herman L. Turner.

Never before have you seen such shoe values and such a timely offering. Easter comes early, so select yours for the holiday parade.

Sale Price—

$2.87

Pumps, Ties Black, Blonde One-Straps Puffy Beige Combinations

Children's and Misses' Poll-Parrot All-Leather STRAPS, OXFORDS, PUMPS and TIRES

"Star Brand" Shoes

Sizes 3 to 8 $1.00 Sizes 11 1/2 to 2 $1.95

8 1/2 to 11 $1.45 2 1/2 to 7 $2.95

Boys' All-Leather OXFORDS Black, Brown and Tu-tone Combinations

Sizes 11 to 2 $1.95 and $2.95

1. 95 and $2.95

U. S. KEDS 79c

The Talk of the Town!

Complete Stock of Sizes and Colors

Store Hours Sat. 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. SAUL'S SHOE DEPT. FIRST FLOOR

SAUL'S 91-93 Whitehall St., S. W.

FREE SOUVENIRS to children when accompanied by adults.

Saturday Is KIDDIES' DAY AT SAUL'S

Easter Frock Values to $7.50
Easter Straws Jaunty Styles Poke Shapes Large Brims Streamers $1.00 to $1.95
All-Wool SKIRTS Tweeds and Flannels solid colors and mixtures. Sizes 7 to 14
New Spring COATS Charming Spring coats tailored or trimmed with scarf or capelet. Fabrics of tweeds, basketweave or novelty weave. Newest Spring shades. Serviceable linings. Sizes 2 to 6, 7 to 16 $5.95 to $9.95
Adorable Easter FROCKS Georgette and crepe de chine dresses. Smocked and embroidered. Others are trimmed with ribbons and lace. White and pastels. Sizes 1 to 4 $1.95 to $2.95 $3.95 to $5.95
Wash Dresses Precious little English prints, valances and dimities. Hand embroidered. Some with sassy little sashes. 1 to 3 $1.00
SAUL'S 91-93 Whitehall St., S. W.

Social Items

Mrs. Sam Harbin returned yesterday by motor from a month's stay at Miami Beach, Fla. ***

Mrs. A. L. Stewart is in New York, where she is a guest at the Park Central hotel. ***

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Campbell, of Bell Hill, Ga., announce the birth of a son, James Parker, Jr., at Davis-Pischer sanitarium March 9. Mrs. Campbell was formerly Miss Mary S. Campbell. ***

Mrs. Benjamin S. Barker, Sr., W. R. Barker and Mrs. Benjamin S. Barker, Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn., are enjoying a 10-day motor trip to Washington, D. C., St. Augustine, Fla., Island Beach, Allendale, S. C., and Clemson. ***

Mr. and Mrs. John Pendleton Stewart announce the birth of a daughter March 6 at Wesley Memorial hospital, who has been given the name of Frances Pendleton. This little girl is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. McCallum of West Palm Beach, Fla., and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stewart. ***

Mrs. Benjamin S. Barker, Sr., W. R. Barker and Mrs. Benjamin S. Barker, Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn., are enjoying a 10-day motor trip to Washington, D. C., St. Augustine, Fla., Island Beach, Allendale, S. C., and Clemson. ***

Mr. and Mrs. Hileman Dewberry announce the birth of a son, Sam, March 8, at St. Joseph's infirmary, who has been given the name of Hileman Augustus, Jr. Mrs. Dewberry was formerly Miss Margaret Smith, of Macon. ***

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Jennings and sons, Richard and Watkins, of Jackson, Miss., formerly of Atlanta, will attend today to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Jackson at their home on Page street. ***

Among the guests at the Biltmore hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Morton J. Baum, of Cincinnati, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bayles, of Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bernard, of Tulsa, Okla.; Mrs. B. M. Chenoweth, of Birmingham; Miss Margaret Chenoweth, of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Clegg, of Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hamilton, of Oak Park, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Lawton, of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. N. X. Mahoney, of Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mitchell, of Paducah, Ky.; Mrs. J. H. Pritchett, of Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Seward, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sedlacek, of Chicago. ***

Miss Marion Calhoun will arrive March 27 from the Osgood school in Philadelphia, where she is a student, to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Phinizy Calhoun, at their home on Andrews drive. ***

Miss Janette Tigner returned Friday from Georgia State College for Women, where she is spending school to spend the spring holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hope Tigner, in Ansley Park. ***

Mrs. Robert Crichton has returned from a few days' visit to her father, Hugh Alexander, in Augusta, Ga. ***

Mrs. A. L. Wilson and her mother, Mrs. Richard Shaw, of Quincy, Fla., arrived yesterday to attend the beautiful social event of today. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Sarah Shaw and has a host of friends in Atlanta made during frequent visits to Miss Erwin and Mrs. William Fullgham, formerly Miss Isabelle Breitnacher. ***

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peter Jones announce the birth of a daughter, Barbara Ann, on Friday, March 13, at the Georgia Baptist hospital. Mrs. Jones was before her marriage Miss Leonora Walker. ***

B. D. Gray, Jr., is ill with influenza at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. B. D. Gray, in College Park. ***

Mrs. Hayden Stanley is recovering from an attack of influenza at the Georgia Baptist hospital. ***

Mrs. R. A. Redding will be removed tomorrow from Wesley Memorial hospital to her home on Juniper street. ***

Walter Scott Coleman is recovering from a serious illness at the Georgia Baptist hospital. ***

Mrs. E. L. Ware, Miss Frances Ware and Spencer Bell arrived yesterday from Charlotte, N. C., to attend the wedding of Miss Ruth Erwin and Fred Ware, which will be solemnized today at high noon at the North Avenue Presbyterian church. ***

Mrs. Samuel C. Porter is visiting relatives in Nashville, Tenn. ***

Burgess Children's Stories

BUILDING A HOME.

By Thornton W. Burgess.

There's no true home for bird or man.

Where love has not laid out the plan.

—Redshoulder the Hawk.

Redshoulder the Hawk and Mrs. Redshoulder have been mates for many years. They have had many differences of opinion, but these really haven't mattered at all, for love, which each has for the other, has always smoothed these out, as it always will. It was just so in choosing the tree in which to build the new nest. Having agreed to Mrs. Redshoulder's choice in the matter, Redshoulder said no more about it.

"We'll build right in this crotch," said Mrs. Redshoulder. "These two branches are just for us, and we'll never be afraid of having one break; they are high enough, yet not too high, and no matter how hard the wind blows, the nest can never be shaken loose."

"I'll go right off and get the first stick," declared Redshoulder. "I'll get it in place," replied Mrs. Redshoulder dryly. "I put it there before you came."

Sure enough, there was a fairly good-sized stick firmly placed in that crotch. Redshoulder hadn't noticed it, or if he had he had thought it was that had fallen there.

"That last nest of ours was a good one, but it was a bit erratic," continued Mrs. Redshoulder. "Every time I build a nest I learn something. I guess it is a good thing to have a new home once in a while. We must have this foundation strong, so don't bring any rotten sticks. Just remember that we are building for a long time to come. Anyway, I hope so. I would hate to feel that we are building for those robbers who took our other nest." She meant Hooty the Owl and Mrs. Hooty.

"That stick might do for the nest of Blacky the Crow, but not for our nest," I would say. "I do wish you would be more careful in the sticks you bring."

"Yes'm," Redshoulder would say meekly. "You are right, my dear. Of course, you are right. That stick looked all right to me, but you know best. Isn't that stick you have just a trifle small?"

"No, it isn't," Mrs. Redshoulder would retort. "It is time to use smaller sticks. I'm glad to have you bring sticks, but I do wish you wouldn't try to put them into the nest. You only make more work for me, for you never put them in the proper place. There is a right way and a wrong way to place a stick, and I always manage to place it the wrong way."

"Yes'm," Redshoulder would say. "Of course, you are right. Next time I'll just leave the stick for you."

But the next time he brought a stick and found that Mrs. Redshoulder

TALKING IT OVER
BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

There is No Pleasure in Acquiring Comfort Comparable to the Pleasure in Dispensing It to Others in Dire Need—Treat the Man Like He Treats You; Say Nothing, Do Nothing, Watch and Wait.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD: I am a girl of 17. I have a face that would be considered pretty but I have become very sensitive about the appearance of one of my eyes which was injured by a burn when I was quite young. I always feel that strangers see my bad eye first and that my friends are pitying me because of it. What should I do to overcome the handicap? T. D.

ANSWER: The answer is, of course, forget it; but that is more easily said than done. Nothing makes a woman so arrogant as to feel herself altogether beautiful. Nothing drives men away from women more effectively than arrogance. It is defiant and forbidding. It rides rough-shod over the tender sensibilities of others. It is the prerogative of giant strength to take great strides. Such arrogance about beauty can never be justified because it is not an earned increment. It is an advantage that one has done nothing to get and an advantage that one can do little to hold. Father Time will certainly rob a woman of beauty, that is, physical beauty.

A woman with a defect of physical form has one big advantage. Those who choose her for a friend and the one who chooses her for a wife make the choice because of something more lasting and more valuable than physical beauty. You see it carries its compensation with it.

The exterior qualities which are immediately seen may not be altogether pleasing but the people who are driven away by that circumstance are not worth holding. To those who are concerned with the greatness of mind and heart, the inner beauty is apparent, if it exists, and the exterior defects actually place them in high relief.

Most men are looking for comfortable companionship with women, and women are looking for the same thing. Many elements go into the making of a comfortable personality. Among them are tranquility of spirit, which one may not have without suffering, sympathetic understanding, which one may not give without having first felt the need of it in one's own life. It is a quality which many possess and yet easily communicate. It is not pity. It is not kin to pity. Pity has in it the element of personal pity, one who is in trouble and needs to keep self-respect. This sympathetic understanding is an ability to put yourself in another's place and to let the person know you are able and willing to do it. It says "Let's swap and then let's swap back again. In this reciprocity shall we see how I feel and I shall see how you feel." Those who have the ability to dispense comfort are not necessarily comparable to the satisfaction of dispensing of comfort to the satisfaction of dispensing of comfort to the satisfaction of dispensing of comfort to the satisfaction of those who are in dire need.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD: I am writing you about a young man who once loved me but who has stopped coming to see me although he had often told me he could never forget me. He has recently returned to his former position in the town in which I live after an absence of several years. I cannot get him off my mind. I feel there is nothing in the future for me separated from him. I have tried to divert my mind by hard work, but I haven't succeeded. Please tell me what is the best thing to do? AGITATED.

ANSWER: There is nothing to do but wait patiently and fill your life with some other interest or other interests. The men are much better equipped by nature for juggling interests than are women, and do something about every situation that troubles them. The men sit in any way for some time, and then get up and go to another place to think about the problems that confront them. If they fall out of love with a girl they stand by silently without saying or doing anything about it, knowing perfectly well that when the girl discovers it she will do and say something about it. What she says or does either drives him into marriage or drives him away for good.

Why don't you give the young man a surprise and beat him at his own game? It might pique his curiosity to such an extent that you would regain his interest.

Immerse yourself in some good books. You will find ideas which will divert you and you will be far more entertaining to the other people with whom you come in contact. Redshoulder and I made some new friends. Invite people to come to see you and if you have ideas, it will not be hard to do. A woman who is sunk in the bog of an unhappy love affair is in a bad position for men or women. People are looking for amusement and they will not go where they cannot find it. A dear friend will come in to comfort a friend in the first flush of sorrow, but even a friend will not stay for life.

When you are persuaded to the futility of wearing out your heart grieving for a man who does not love you, you may be able to go about the business of life in a normal way. But everything about you is abnormal now and you must treat yourself like a sick person. Prescribe daily doses and make yourself take them.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

will. It was just so in choosing the tree in which to build the new nest. Having agreed to Mrs. Redshoulder's choice in the matter, Redshoulder said no more about it.

"We'll build right in this crotch," said Mrs. Redshoulder. "These two branches are just for us, and we'll never be afraid of having one break; they are high enough, yet not too high, and no matter how hard the wind blows, the nest can never be shaken loose."

"I'll go right off and get the first stick," declared Redshoulder. "I'll get it in place," replied Mrs. Redshoulder dryly. "I put it there before you came."

Sure enough, there was a fairly good-sized stick firmly placed in that crotch. Redshoulder hadn't noticed it, or if he had he had thought it was that had fallen there.

"That last nest of ours was a good one, but it was a bit erratic," continued Mrs. Redshoulder. "Every time I build a nest I learn something. I guess it is a good thing to have a new home once in a while. We must have this foundation strong, so don't bring any rotten sticks. Just remember that we are building for a long time to come. Anyway, I hope so. I would hate to feel that we are building for those robbers who took our other nest." She meant Hooty the Owl and Mrs. Hooty.

"That stick might do for the nest of Blacky the Crow, but not for our nest," I would say. "I do wish you would be more careful in the sticks you bring."

"Yes'm," Redshoulder would say. "Of course, you are right. Next time I'll just leave the stick for you."

But the next time he brought a stick and found that Mrs. Redshoulder

P.-T. A. Benefit
Bridge Given
In MariettaWOMEN'S
MEETINGS

SATURDAY, MARCH 14.

MARIETTA, Ga., March 13.—Mrs. Roy Collins and Mrs. John Collins entertained at a bridge party yesterday afternoon at the home of the former on McDonald street, for the benefit of the P.-T. A. of the Marietta High school.

Mrs. Carl Vretman is conducting a series of auction bridge instructions at the Marietta Country Club, sponsored by Mrs. Harry DuPre. The members include Mesdames Hunter Morrisette, Catherine DuPre Blair, Tom Read, Jr., E. E. Malcolm, Morgan McNeil, Sr., John Boston, Harry Dulre, Martin Amorus, Georgia King Sullivan, Len Baldwin and W. A. DuPre, Sr.

Mrs. Hi Mozie entertained with a luncheon Wednesday at her home on Church street, in honor of her bridge club.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Wallace left Wednesday for Marion, Ga., where they are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hashbarger. Later the will visit Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mayes in Tifton, Ga.

Mrs. G. C. Williams and Miss Marie Massey Brumby have returned from a visit with Miss Era Allen at Coopersburg College, Spartanburg, S. C.

Miss Bernice Johnson, Miss Iris Collier, Catherine Lee, Jewel Dodd and Pattie Summerhur, return today from G. S. C. W., Milledgeville, Ga., to spend the spring holidays. Miss Johnson will be the guest of Miss Wylene Collins.

Miss Yema Dawn Hancock is spending this week-end with Miss Era Allen at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president, Miss Mary Tucker, and followed by a picnic at Stone Mountain, given by the active Chi chapter of Oglethorpe.

Alumnae of the Beta Phi Alpha Sorority meet at a luncheon at the Vanity Fair tea room, to be given by the president,

Ed Danforth, Sports Editor
Ralph McGill
Clarence Nixon
Herb Clark
Roy E. White

SPORTS

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

PAGE SIXTEEN

ATLANTA, GA., SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 14, 1931.

Grantland Rice
W. O. McGeehan
Henry McLemore
Alan J. Gould
Walter Trumbull

Thirteen Holdouts in Camps of Majors on Friday the Thirteenth

CRACKERS SEEK TO SOLVE ROOKIE PROBLEM

MAJOR LEAGUE CAMPS REPORT THIRTEEN 'OUT'

Frisch, Vance, Herman and Reynolds Are on Grounds.

By Dixon Stewart,

United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, March 13.—(UP)—Desertion of Bill Terry, Giants' first baseman, has reduced the major league's holdout brigade to 13 players as of Friday the thirteenth. Terry made peace with his employers and signed a report to the Giants' training camp Saturday.

The remaining unsigned major league players, with salary demands and latest offers from their clubs are:

Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn, pitcher; salary demanded: $25,000; club's offer: $22,500.

Babe Herman, outfield; salary demanded: $30,000; club's offer: $19,000.

Chuck Philbin, Phillip, outfield; salary demanded: $18,000; club's offer: $16,000.

Connie Mack, Philadelphia, outfield; salary demanded: $25,000; club's offer: $10,000.

Elmer Morgan, Cleveland, first base; salary demanded: $10,000; club's offer: $6,500.

Horace Ford, Cincinnati, shortstop; salary demanded: $10,000; club's offer: $6,500.

Charles Dransfield, Pittsburgh, pitcher; salary demanded: $30,000; club's offer: $4,500.

Chick Hafey, Cardinals, outfield; salary demanded: $25,000; club's offer: $12,000.

Frank Frisch, Cardinals, second base; salary demanded: $20,000.

Larry French, Pirates, pitcher; salary demanded: $18,000; club's offer: $12,000.

Elton Blue, Browns, first base; salary demanded: $8,000.

Warren Spahn, Browns, pitcher; salary demanded: $7,500.

Al Simmons, Athletics, outfield; salary demanded: $35,000; club's offer: $30,000.

All of the unsigned players except Dressen and Ford have been offered increases over their 1930 salaries. The two Cincinnati players have been asked to take salary cuts and are holding out for renewals of their contracts. Dressen has been given permission to arrange a trade for himself and is endeavoring to interest the St. Louis Cardinals in his services.

NOT "HOLDOUTS."

Perhaps the hardest ball hit over this fence in the joint spring training drills of the Atlanta and Reading clubs was made by Wilbur Davis, the old New Orleans first baseman.

Wilbur smote a line drive that hit not over three feet from the TOP of the bank.

A few minutes before he had hit a high mashie pitch over the fence, but this last blow was a blast.

THE PRIZE LICK.

Thus far there is no evidence to show that the new baseball is any deader than the old apple or easier to curve. Sometimes the boys will hit and sometimes they will miss.

Not until the shank of the summer when the figures on extra base hits and strikeouts are totaled can one tell whether the new raised seams and heavy cover has helped the pitchers or vice versa.

A REAL FISH TALE

Here is a clipping from Eden, Australia, that beats any fishing yarn that our mild country has ever produced:

"Members of the fishing crews of this town are mourning the death of 'Old Tom,' chief of the local pack of killer whales, which he ruled for more than a century. The native blacks believed him to be the reincarnation of a famous king and the white fishermen knew him as a friend and ally.

"In the season when the whales came in from the open ocean 'Old Tom' and his killer whale companions would drive the whales into the almost landlocked bay.

"The harpooners, summoned by a lookout, would set out in their boats and kill the whales while the killers patrolled back and forth across the entrance of the bay so as to prevent the escape of the whales.

"When a whale was killed the killers came inshore and the harpooners fed them the portion not used for oil making.

"For years this strange arrangement between the big fish and the fishermen has been in effect.

"The killer whales are about 30 feet long and possessed with unusual sagacity.

"As the town of Eden depends on the one industry, whaling, the people mourn for their old comrade of the chase."

Now can you beat that one? Not here where a gentleman who reports landing a 12-pound bass is inspected over the tops of spectacles.

GETTING SOFT?

Perhaps I am a softie. As I go along in this business, I keep running into situations that give me a choking sensation just behind the neck where others laugh heartily.

This observation was prompted by reactions during one of the boxing bouts at Tech yesterday.

In one of the 155-pound class matches a quaint looking figure climbed through the ropes. He was over six feet tall. He could have completely concealed himself behind a telephone pole. He wore the usual green boxing trunks but in addition had a tattered blue jersey with the number 27 on the back.

The boys gave him a big hand. They called him "The Vagabond Lover." I learned later they gave him this title because he can sing and always insists on wearing some sort of ragged shirt when boxing instead of stripping to the waist as the other boys do.

He was not fashioned for boxing. That attenuated frame was never designed to stop the impacts of gloved fists.

"The Vagabond Lover" squared off and began fighting. He kept pumping his long arms and driving his fist at the heavy set frame of his opponent, but he was stopping two for one with his face and his ribs. At the finish he was bleeding and swayed like a willow bush in the wind but he was still willing to go on. He has never backed up yet. The boys were for him; they pulled for him to win and cheered him as he lost.

Now what prompted that boy to get into the ring and go through the daily round of boxing lessons? What ambition moved him? Was it a romantic urge of some sort? There is a story behind it, but one would be impudent, I imagine, to try into the matter.

Y. M. C. A. Teams Honored at Dinner

Members of the Y. M. C. A. senior and junior basketball teams and others who have won prominence this year were honor guests of Y officials Friday night at a dinner at the Varsity Tea Room.

Gold medals were given to each of the athletes in appreciation of their good work in recent games.

The Y. M. C. A. which received medals were Fischer, O'Connor, Merritt, Wilkinson, Green and Brock. Junior players were Crawford, Hill, Bryant, Tinsley, Hardin, Kelley and Baker. Branch and Carson received the wrestlers awards.

Indoor Track Stars End Season Tonight

NEW YORK, March 13.—(UP)—The eastern indoor track season comes to a blazing finish tomorrow night in the historic Knights of Columbus games, with a large field of national and intercollegiate champions primed for a final assault on the indoor records.

CHALLENGE RACE.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 13.—(UP)—Sixteen track stars are expected to sail to the breeze tomorrow in the annual race for a challenge cup offered by Sir Thomas Lipton. The South Florida Boat Racing Association, sponsors of the event, has packed out a six-mile triangular course off Miami Beach, which will be covered twice in the race.

INDIAN HURLERS PRAISED.

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—(UP)—The Cleveland Indians were through three hours of intensive training here today. After the workout, Billy Lipton, general manager, praised the work of the pitchers. He said he thought he had much better material in Hudlin, Miller, Schaffer, Harder and Jablowski than he had last year.

FIGHTER CLEARED.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., March 13.—(UP)—John H. Lewis, Phoenix, Ariz., was given a night off yesterday, but was here Wednesday night for San J. Tarin, local boxer, who died in the ring a few minutes after he had been knocked out by Lewis with a smashing to the heart.

JACKET BOXERS FIGHT TO FINALS IN GREAT SLATE

Titles Go Up in 7-Bout Card Set for Tonight at Flats.

By Ed Danforth.

Stout-hearted Enginers, gloved and grim with the serious import of the bout, held through the semi-final rounds of the Georgia Tech boxing tournament yesterday afternoon at the gymnasium.

The survivors in seven classes face each other tonight for the 1931 championships.

Bouts in each class were bitterly fought. These collegians have never heard of the word stale. Very few have heard you can clinch. Under the tutelage of Mike Chambers, the Blond Bear, they have learned to hit and keep hitting until, for one reason or another, there is no more hitting to be done. And then they have learned to feint pretty well and duck, but for the most part the lads know no defense but offense.

BEST SHOW.

The hall was packed with students. Admission is by invitation only, since tickets are not yet ready. The invitational bout at Tech. But it was the best free boxing show that ever was staged in the city and away beyond the usual run of pay attractions.

These college boys rarely shoot for the money. They aim to blow the chin or button as it is termed in professional circles. Knockouts were frequent and knockouts quite stylish.

More than once the bell saved an Engineer who was down and just had enough of his wits left to get up at the count of eight only to be stretched out again.

All the bouts were good. There was not a dud in the lot. A matchmaker in the profession who could achieve such a card would be hailed as a master promoter.

ONE LONG BOUT.

Only one bout went beyond the amateur limit of three rounds. Ben Cherry, the sophomore fullback, and Jimmy Branch, a freshman guard, stood up in the heavyweight class and put on a fine exhibition for three rounds to a draw. Cherry won the extra round in opinion of the judges.

Both fighters were smooth one-two attack as any ring fan would care to see and he peppered the stocky Cherry murderous. Cherry jabbed hard with his left and usually countered with a right chop that was the kick of a mule. The first round was a draw, the second. Both boys finished arm weary and helped each other through the ropes in a fine show of spirit.

SURPRISE ENDING.

A surprise was sprung in the other heavyweight semi-final when Luckey, the one who knocked out the champion in the first round, was knocked out by the champion in the second. Both boys finished arm weary and helped each other through the ropes in a fine show of spirit.

HONORABLE MENTION.

Ernie Hearn, the sophomore, was smooth. The winners showed so much knowledge of the game that the finals tonight are bound to produce some first-class sport.

Mike Chambers, Tech trainer, is general chairman of the tournament committee and chief announcer. He is assisted by Jim Thompson, Steve Hartnett, referees; W. A. Alexander, Rufus Bass and Roy Mundorf, timer.

FRIDAY'S RESULTS.

115 Pounds—Mac McNichols defeated Shahan; Owens, 1st.

125 Pounds—Rip Hardeman defeated T. C. Jackson; Bill Thompson defeated L. W. Robert; Jim Hearn defeated Dick Hardeman.

135 Pounds—Berlin defeated Merritt; Frey, knocked out Prewitt in third round.

145 Pounds—Hungerford defeated Easlin; Light-heavy—Adams knocked out McGraw in first round; Singleton defeated Kroll.

Heavyweight—Cherry defeated Branch in extra round; Larky knocked out Nebelt in first round.

155 Pounds—T. C. Jackson defeated Larky.

165 Pounds—Mac McNichols vs. Bill Thompson.

175 Pounds—Rip Hardeman vs. Jim Thompson.

185 Pounds—Rip Hardeman vs. Jim Hartnett.

195 Pounds—Harold Berlin vs. Elmo Gray.

205 Pounds—Vernon Hungerford vs. Max Morris.

Light-heavy—Quinn Adams vs. Joe Singleton.

Heavyweight—Ben Cherry vs. J. D. Lack.

British Star Low In Women's Play

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 13.—(AP)—Miss Kathleen Garnham, Liverpool, England, led her British compatriots and the American contestants today in the first 18 hours of the annual Sedgfield County club spring medal tournament. She turned in an 89.

Tut-Petrolle Purse Are Ordered Paid

NEW YORK, March 13.—(AP)—The New York state athletic commission has ordered an investigation of the recent King Tut-Billy Petrolle fight and ordered that the purses of both fighters be paid.

The purses had been held up pending an investigation of Petrolle's foul and knockout of the boxer who had knocked him out but a few weeks before.

Madison Square Garden, however, was refused permission to pit Petrolle against Tony Canzoneri in a lightweight title match some time next month.

RAKE BILL KILLED.

RALEIGH, N. C., March 13.—(AP)—Confronted by a storm of protest from ministers and religious organizations, the North Carolina general assembly to day voted to legalize horse and dog races with pari-mutuel betting in Buncombe county and Asheville.

"TWO ARE FAVORED."

NEW ORLEANS, March 13.—(AP)—Lightning, Bolt and Spanish Play were equal pre-post favorites in a fine field of 11 three-year-olds entered in the tenth running of the $7,500 Louisiana Derby to be run at Jefferson Park racetrack tomorrow afternoon.

EPWORTH COURT TEAMS CONTEST TITLES TONIGHT

Preliminaries Set This Afternoon on Athletic Club Court.

Pat Stephens, star of the Atlanta Athletic Club basketball team for many seasons, will end his court career today as a member of the all-star Epworth team in the annual Southeastern Empire Union tournament here. The Atlanta Athletic Club court. Four other members of the club team, Cy Bell, Dee Brewer, Joe McCrory and Pinkey Bynum, together with a Y. M. C. A. star, Oscar Brock, will complete the Atlanta team.

Atlanta will open the afternoon program at 3 o'clock with Nashville as opponents. The Birmingham and Chattanooga boys will play the 4 o'clock contest.

A boys' consolation game will be played at 7 o'clock, a girls' championship game at 8 and the boys' championship game at 9 o'clock tonight.

It will be a "reunion" game for the Atlanta all-stars who will return to their courts under their starting names years ago. Stephens was with Calvary Bell with College Park, McCrory and Brock with Grace, and Brewer with Trinity.

This is the first year that the tournament has been held in Atlanta and the third annual affair for the Epworth.

These college boys rarely shoot for the money. They aim to blow the chin or button as it is termed in professional circles. Knockouts were frequent and knockouts quite stylish.

More than once the bell saved an Engineer who was down and just had enough of his wits left to get up at the count of eight only to be stretched out again.

Atlanta will open the afternoon program at 3 o'clock with Nashville as opponents. The Birmingham and Chattanooga boys will play the 4 o'clock contest.

A boys' consolation game will be played at 7 o'clock, a girls' championship game at 8 and the boys' championship game at 9 o'clock tonight.

It will be a "reunion" game for the Atlanta all-stars who will return to their courts under their starting names years ago. Stephens was with Calvary Bell with College Park, McCrory and Brock with Grace, and Brewer with Trinity.

This is the first year that the tournament has been held in Atlanta and the third annual affair for the Epworth.

These college boys rarely shoot for the money. They aim to blow the chin or button as it is termed in professional circles. Knockouts were frequent and knockouts quite stylish.

More than once the bell saved an Engineer who was down and just had enough of his wits left to get up at the count of eight only to be stretched out again.

Atlanta will open the afternoon program at 3 o'clock with Nashville as opponents. The Birmingham and Chattanooga boys will play the 4 o'clock contest.

A boys' consolation game will be played at 7 o'clock, a girls' championship game at 8 and the boys' championship game at 9 o'clock tonight.

It will be a "reunion" game for the Atlanta all-stars who will return to their courts under their starting names years ago. Stephens was with Calvary Bell with College Park, McCrory and Brock with Grace, and Brewer with Trinity.

BOND OFFERINGS AGAIN DECLINE

Daily Bond Averages.

Copyright, 1931, Standard Statistics Co.

10 10 30 30

Ind'l B'rs. U.S. Total

Friday 87.9 101.8 109.7 94.9

Prev. day 88.8 105.6 108.5 97.6

Week ago 88.8 105.6 108.5 97.6

Year ago 93.4 107.1 98.8 99.8

2 yrs. ago 94.2 102.7 97.6 98.2

High 90.8 107.3 98.6 99.8

Low 89.0 106.9 98.8 99.9

High 1929 95.3 106.0 98.8 99.9

Low 1929 90.4 100.8 98.8 99.8

BY DONALD C. BOLLES.

NEW YORK, March 13.—(AP)—The bond market followed stocks downward today and for the same reasons in many instances.

Railroad issues reflected the uncertain situation for stocks and dividends for many of the carriers.

Bonds of the Van Sweringen railroads and companies played an important part in the decline of the rail obligations. Alleghany Corporation 5% of 1944 and 1945, Erie General 4%, Illinois, Missouri Pacific general 4%, and the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific 4 1/2%, were Marquette series B 48 and Wabash 3 1/2 of 1941 dropped one point or more. A few other Van Sweringen obligations, however, were higher and the decline in rail bonds was far from being confined to this group.

Bonds of the United States government crept upward in trading concentrated in three or four issues of the group. Foreign issues were irregular, but the German 5 1/2 made further gains.

Bond offerings this week aggregated $262,573,000 compared with $157,690,000 last week and $184,609,000 a year ago.

Produce

ATLANTA

Wholesale market quotations on Georgia farm products, as reported to the state board of markets, are as follows:

Eggs, Georgia, extra, dozen..... $2.00

Ham, Georgia, extra, dozen..... 18.00

Pigs, Georgia, trade, dozen..... 1.13

Georgia, yard run, dozen..... 1.18

THE CONSTITUTION
CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

CLASSIFIED RATES

Daily and Sunday rates per line for consecutive insertions:
One time 20 cents
Two times 17 cents
Seven times 12 cents
Ads ordered for three or seven days and stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appeared and adjustments made at the rate earned.

Display advertisements should be reported immediately. The Constitution will not be responsible for more than one insertion.

Printed AD's taken at $1.00 per line.

Charged ads will be received by telephone.

WALnut 6565

RAILROAD SCHEDULES

Schedule Published at Information Center Standard Time.

Arrives 8:00 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 7:10 p.m. ... Cordon-Waycross 7:50 a.m. ... Waycross-Thomasville 8:00 a.m. ...

Arrives 7:15 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 8:45 a.m. ... New Orleans-Montgomery 8:40 a.m. ...

Arrives 7:45 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 8:05 a.m. ... West Point, Ga. 8:00 a.m. ...

Arrives 8:00 a.m. U. S. G. R. Leaves 8:15 a.m. ... Macon-Adel-Thomasville 8:25 a.m. ...

Arrives 8:15 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 8:30 a.m. ... New Orleans-Montgomery 8:45 a.m. ...

Arrives 8:30 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 8:45 a.m. ... Montgomery-Loxley 8:50 a.m. ...

Arrives 8:45 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 8:55 a.m. ... New Orleans-Montgomery 8:50 a.m. ...

Arrives 8:50 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 9:05 a.m. ... West Point, Ga. 9:00 a.m. ...

Arrives 8:55 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 9:15 a.m. ... Macon-Milledgeville 9:30 a.m. ...

Arrives 9:00 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 9:15 a.m. ... Macon-Milledgeville 9:30 a.m. ...

Arrives 9:15 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 9:30 a.m. ... Macon-Milledgeville 9:45 a.m. ...

Arrives 9:30 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 9:45 a.m. ... Macon-Milledgeville 10:00 a.m. ...

Arrives 9:45 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 10:00 a.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 10:15 a.m. ...

Arrives 10:00 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 10:15 a.m. ... Birmingham-Memphis 10:30 a.m. ...

Arrives 10:15 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 10:30 a.m. ... Birmingham-Memphis 10:45 a.m. ...

Arrives 10:30 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 10:45 a.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 11:00 a.m. ...

Arrives 10:45 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 11:00 a.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 11:15 a.m. ...

Arrives 11:15 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 11:30 a.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 11:45 a.m. ...

Arrives 11:45 a.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 11:55 a.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 12:00 p.m. ...

Arrives 12:00 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 12:15 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 12:30 p.m. ...

Arrives 12:30 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 12:45 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 1:00 p.m. ...

Arrives 1:00 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 1:15 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 1:30 p.m. ...

Arrives 1:30 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 1:45 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 2:00 p.m. ...

Arrives 2:00 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 2:15 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 2:30 p.m. ...

Arrives 2:30 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 2:45 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 3:00 p.m. ...

Arrives 3:00 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 3:15 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 3:30 p.m. ...

Arrives 3:30 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 3:45 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 4:00 p.m. ...

Arrives 4:00 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 4:15 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 4:30 p.m. ...

Arrives 4:30 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 4:45 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 5:00 p.m. ...

Arrives 5:00 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 5:15 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 5:30 p.m. ...

Arrives 5:30 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 5:45 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 6:00 p.m. ...

Arrives 6:00 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 6:15 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 6:30 p.m. ...

Arrives 6:30 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 6:45 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 6:55 p.m. ...

Arrives 6:55 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 7:00 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 7:15 p.m. ...

Arrives 7:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 7:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 7:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 7:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 7:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 8:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 8:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 8:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 8:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 8:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 8:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 9:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 9:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 9:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 9:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 9:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 9:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 10:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 10:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 10:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 10:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 10:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 10:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 11:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 11:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 11:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 11:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 11:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 11:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 12:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 12:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 12:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 12:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 12:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 12:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 1:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 1:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 1:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 1:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 1:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 1:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 2:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 2:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 2:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 2:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 2:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 2:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 3:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 3:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 3:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 3:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 3:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 3:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 4:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 4:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 4:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 4:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 4:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 4:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 5:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 5:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 5:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 5:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 5:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 5:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 6:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 6:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 6:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 6:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 6:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 6:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 7:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 7:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 7:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 7:45 p.m. ...

Arrives 7:45 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 7:55 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 8:10 p.m. ...

Arrives 8:15 p.m. W. P. R. R. Leaves 8:30 p.m. ... Birmingham-Atlanta 8:45 p.m. ...

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Auto Travel Opportunities

TRANSPORTATION I

TRANSPORTATION II

TRANSPORTATION III

TRANSPORTATION IV

TRANSPORTATION V

TRANSPORTATION VI

TRANSPORTATION VII

TRANSPORTATION VIII

TRANSPORTATION IX

TRANSPORTATION X

TRANSPORTATION XI

TRANSPORTATION XII

TRANSPORTATION XIII

TRANSPORTATION XIV

TRANSPORTATION XV

TRANSPORTATION XVI

TRANSPORTATION XVII

TRANSPORTATION XVIII

TRANSPORTATION XIX

TRANSPORTATION XX

TRANSPORTATION XXI

TRANSPORTATION XXII

TRANSPORTATION XXIII

TRANSPORTATION XXIV

TRANSPORTATION XXV

TRANSPORTATION XXVI

TRANSPORTATION XXVII

TRANSPORTATION XXVIII

TRANSPORTATION XXIX

TRANSPORTATION XXX

TRANSPORTATION XXXI

TRANSPORTATION XXXII

TRANSPORTATION XXXIII

TRANSPORTATION XXXIV

TRANSPORTATION XXXV

TRANSPORTATION XXXVI

TRANSPORTATION XXXVII

TRANSPORTATION XXXVIII

TRANSPORTATION XXXIX

TRANSPORTATION XL

TRANSPORTATION XLI

TRANSPORTATION XLII

TRANSPORTATION XLIII

TRANSPORTATION XLIV

TRANSPORTATION XLV

TRANSPORTATION XLVI

TRANSPORTATION XLVII

TRANSPORTATION XLVIII

TRANSPORTATION XLIX

TRANSPORTATION L

TRANSPORTATION LI

TRANSPORTATION LII

TRANSPORTATION LIII

TRANSPORTATION LIV

TRANSPORTATION LV

TRANSPORTATION LVII

TRANSPORTATION LVIII

TRANSPORTATION LVIX

TRANSPORTATION LVII

TRANSPORTATION LVIII

